Town Is Hit In Explosion Of Tank Car

2 Crewmen Die, 300 Homes Are Damaged In Mount Pulaski, Ill.

MOUNT PULASKI Ill. (AP)—The shattering explosion of a railroad tank car spread devastation through this town of 1,500 Sunday, leaving some 1,000 temporarily homeless.

Two railroad crewmen were killed and one was injured seriously in the blast of the car filled with a petroleum product. More than a score of persons were injured by flying glass and debris. None was reported in serious condition.

Damage was estimated by town and civil defense officials at a million dollars. Officials said a survey indicated two-thirds of the town's 400 homes were damaged and not immediately habitable.

State police ordered the town evacuated after flames threatened two other tank cars filled with liquid chemicals. The cause of the blast was not immediately determined.

The tank car was on an Illinois Central Railroad freight train which was switching in the yards.

National Guardsmen were ordered into the central Illinois town to prevent looting.

The explosion tore a crater about 35 feet across and 30 feet deep where the tank car had been. Chunks of steel, some weighing several tons, were hurled a quarter of a mile.

O'Neill Seeks Boost in Poor Relief Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) —An additional appropriation for poor relief will be included in a call for a special session of the legislature this month, Gov. C. William O'Neill said today.

Such an appropriation will permit the state to match county poor relief expenditures on a dollar-for-dollar basis, without a deficiency, he explained.

The governor expressed the hope that the Ohio Supreme Court will decide the issue of supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) before the special session is called by June 30.

If the high court affirms lower court decisions that SUB and state jobless benefit can be paid at the same time, the governor said about 15 million dollars in SUB payments could be made to about 40,000 unemployed workers immediately.

The governor has not included SUB in business to be transacted by the legislature under his call, but said it could be considered. Only matters specified by the call can be dealt with in a special session.

The governor said he has asked finance director John Skipton and Welfare Director Margaret Ireland for estimates on the amount of additional money needed for poor relief matching.

He said poor relief costs have mounted beyond earlier expectations. The legislature appropriated 24 million dollars for matching through the state's two-year bookkeeping period ending June 30, 1950.

Holiday Traffic Claims 370

Death Toll in U.S. Sets New Record

The Count of the Dead

Traffic	370
Drownings	127
Miscellaneous	88
Total	585

By The Associated Press

Traffic fatalities across the nation during the extended Memorial Day holiday climbed to 370, breaking the record toll for the same three-day holiday in 1955.

Late reports were expected to boost The Associated Press tabulation to an even higher total. The count of dead in accidents attributed to holiday observances covered the 78-hour period from 6 p.m. (local time) Thursday to midnight Sunday.

Over-All Total Hits 585

In addition to the 370 killed in traffic, drownings accounted for 127 deaths and 88 died from miscellaneous accidents, an over-all total of 585.

The traffic toll exceeded the National Safety Council's preholiday estimate of 350.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the council, said "disappointment over the size of the toll is all the more bitter because of the steady decline in traffic deaths for more than a year and special efforts of traffic officials to hold down the holiday toll."

The heavy toll was termed by council officials as proof that "impatience, intemperance and indifference bring death on the highways, especially on holidays."

The traffic total compared with 294 reported during the 78-hour nonholiday period from 6 p. m. Thursday, May 15, to midnight Sunday, May 18. The count was made in an Associated Press survey for comparative purposes. It also showed 83 drownings and 71 deaths from miscellaneous accidents, an over-all total of 448.

4-Day Record Set in 1957

In last year's four-day Memorial Day period, 413 persons were killed in highway accidents, which was a record for a four-day Decoration Day holiday. The over-all total of 660, including 134 drownings and 113 deaths in miscellaneous accidents, also was a record for the Memorial Day four-day period.

The low mark in traffic deaths for a three-day Memorial Day holiday period since World War II was 204 in 1948.

Ohio Accidents Take 27 Lives Over Weekend

By The Associated Press

If Ohio's accidental death rate had continued at the rate it began, the state might have set a notorious record for the long holiday weekend.

That was generally agreed today. But it was also agreed that the number of deaths between 6 p. m. Thursday and midnight Sunday was too high as it was.

There were 27 accidental deaths in all. Eighteen persons died in traffic, six drowned, and three died in miscellaneous accidents. The latter resulted from a fire, an accidental shooting and an accident with a farm tractor.

Increases on Sunday

Eighteen persons had died or received fatal injuries before midnight Memorial Day.

Reports of fatalities slacked off after that, but began to increase again Sunday. The toll never resumed the early weekend tempo, however. Whether rain Sunday through most of Ohio helped reduce the death rate by discouraging travel is a matter of conjecture.

Seventeen persons were already dead—and another fatally hurt—when the following deaths occurred Saturday and Sunday:

Refuse Concessions

Ford, Chrysler Contract Talks End in Deadlock

DETROIT (AP)—The car makers and the United Auto Workers held an angry wake today over their dead contracts.

Deadlocked bargaining talks with the union were broken off at midnight at Ford and Chrysler just as they were three nights ago at General Motors. The companies and the union blamed each other for the unprecedented situation.

For the first time in more than 17 years UAW members are working at the Big Three without contracts.

Half a million UAW members employed by the Big Three are under stern orders from their chief, Walter P. Reuther, not to strike nor provoke any incidents that could give the companies an excuse to shut down.

Reuther failed in last-hour attempts to win concessions from Ford and Chrysler before their contracts died at midnight. He made the same maneuvers that failed at GM Thursday night. But the companies flatly rejected his moves for any kind of temporary extensions of contracts.

All stood firm on proposals to extend 1955 contracts for two years, giving auto workers built-in annual wage increases of 7 cents per hour plus cost of living increases. This would amount to at least 16 cents spread over two years.

After the breakup at Ford, Reuther told newmen, "We will ultimately get the companies to sit down and bargain with us the way they should. We will get a 1958 contract, whether it takes two weeks, four weeks or eight weeks....Time is on our side."

The companies didn't say how

U.S. Policy Toward De Gaulle's Regime, Nuclear Tests Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles scheduled a major foreign policy conference today to discuss relations with the De Gaulle government in France and map a new reply to the Soviet Union on nuclear test talks.

A White House statement Sunday night called for "intimate and friendly relations" with France under the premiership of Gen. de Gaulle. But officials said privately that everything depends now on how far De Gaulle is willing to go in Allied cooperation.

Letter From Khrushchev

On the nuclear test issue, the President received a letter from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev Saturday agreeing to open talks among scientific experts of the United States, the Soviet Union and other countries later this month.

Khrushchev raised several points, concerning place and membership, which required a top presidential response.

The scientific experts will try to work out mutually agreeable means for detecting any violations once an agreement to halt testing is ratified.

There is no such agreement now, although the Soviet Union announced earlier this year that it was stopping tests and the United States and Britain have been considering a moratorium.

Suggests Plan

The President in a letter to Khrushchev May 24 suggested that both sides send scientific experts to Geneva in three weeks to work out the detection system. He proposed including British, French and probably other scien-

3 Czechs Take Over Plane in Freedom Dash

VIENNA (AP) — Three anti-Communist Czechoslovaks brandishing a broken pistol forced the pilot of a chartered Czech plane to land in Austria today. They asked political asylum.

The passengers were a married couple and a man friend. One man was reported to be a mechanic and the other a former factory owner.

After landing at Vienna's old old Aspern Airport they told police the gun they used was broken and could not shoot.

The passengers said they hired the plane for an internal flight in Czechoslovakia, then forced the pilot to head for Austria.

Police said the pilot, after touching down here, tried to take off again toward Czechoslovakia but his passengers overpowered him.

Police took all four away for interrogation and locked the plane in a hangar.

Warmer Weather Forecast Tuesday

Sunshine, wind, rain and cooling temperatures combined terms to highlight Marion County's weekend weather picture.

The mercury climbed to a high of 84 Saturday, sank to an overnight low of a sultry 57, then boosted itself to a peak reading of 83 Sunday. Sunday night's low was 51.

A total of .06 of an inch of rain fell Saturday, followed by .08 of an inch of precipitation Sunday.

Cool conditions moved into the area Sunday afternoon, as rain fell here and there about the area. Today dawned damp and cloudy, with the mercury standing at 51 degrees. It had risen to 54 at noon, with a day's high of 64 predicted.

Clearing and cool is the outlook for tonight, with sunny and warmer circumstances on tap Tuesday.

Mental Health Clinic's Chief Arrives in City

Dr. Bonstedt Begins Interviews for Staff; Offices Are Obtained

Stepped-up plans for opening of the new Marion Mental Health Clinic may result in the center beginning operations this month, Dr. R. R. Williams, president of the Marion Mental Health Clinic Association, reported today.

Temporary headquarters at 126½ S. Main St. above the B. F. Goodrich Co. store have been chosen for initial operations, he said. Within a few months the clinic offices will be moved to the upstairs at 210 E. Church St. for permanent headquarters, he announced.

Will Begin Interviews

Dr. Williams said the new clinic director, Dr. Theodor Bonstedt, formerly associated with the Neural Psychiatric Institute at the University of Michigan, has arrived in Marion and is making his home temporarily at 262 Barnhart St.

Dr. Bonstedt was scheduled to begin interviews today with applicants for the two remaining positions on the staff. Positions open are that of a psychiatric social worker and a clerk-stenographer.

Equipment Ordered

Although both jobs may not be filled in the next few weeks, clinic operations will begin nevertheless, Dr. Williams said. Furniture has been ordered and as soon as this and other equipment arrives here, the headquarters will open.

Dr. Williams pointed out that while patients may be seen on a limited basis yet this month, the center will not go into full-scale operation until July 1. The latter date was that originally set for the opening of a clinic here.

Commenting on the association's membership campaign, Dr. Williams said several hundred individual and group memberships already have been received.

He said memberships still are open, even though the formal period for the campaign has passed. He hailed the drive as a success and expressed appreciation for community interest in the mental health effort here.

Source of Oil In Sewer Still Undetermined

Source of a large amount of oily substance in the W. Center St. sanitary trunk sewer still has not been determined, Safety-Service Director Howard W. Travis reported today.

It still is flowing through the sewer at an undiminished rate and present estimates are that more than 5,000 gallons had reached the sewage treatment plant, Mr. Travis said.

City engineers are attempting to determine the source but have been unsuccessful up to now, Mr. Travis said.

The substance, which is inflammable, first was discovered at the sewage treatment plant early last week and later an investigation disclosed a high concentration of it in the W. Center St. trunk between Scioto St. and Fies Ave.

Samples of the substance were sent to Columbus for analysis to determine its composition. This may help to determine its source, Mr. Travis said. A report on the analysis was expected back today or tomorrow.

Mr. Travis said last week that unless the flow of the oil into the sewer is stopped soon, it may make necessary an expensive shutdown and cleaning operation at the sewage treatment plant.

Faces Financial Crisis

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Prime Minister Djuanda warned today that the Indonesian government will go broke unless it quickly puts down the 3½-month-old revolt in the outer islands.

The Central Sumatra revolt was put down last month and the government since has concentrated on the rebellious North Celebes.

Shambles Left By Burglars of Marion House

Second Home Entered Over Weekend; Third Try at Break-In Fails

Burglaries of two homes and an attempted break-in of a business place were reported to Marion police Saturday and Sunday.

Homer Joseph of 406 Lee St. said his home was left in a shambles by burglars who entered it and made off with some watches and coins with total value of $142.

The break-in occurred sometime between May 23 and 7:58 p.m. Saturday when the family returned home after a one-week vacation, he said.

In the kitchen, the refrigerator and all the cupboards had been opened and foodstuffs were scattered about the floor and splattered on the walls, he said.

Every other room in the house also was entered and drawers and closets all were ransacked and the contents scattered about on the floors, he said.

One of the watches stolen was a pocket watch valued at $75, the other was a wrist watch valued at $55 and the coins were pennies totaling $12, he told police.

Entrance to the house was gained by forcing open a rear door.

The residence of William Smith at 138 Barnhart St. was entered sometime over the weekend, Mr. Smith reported Sunday night at 7:12 p.m.

Entrance was gained by breaking out a storm window and reaching through to raise the inside window, he said.

Rev. Williams Is Speaker

1,500 at Harding Hear Baccalaureate Address

Speaking on the topic: "A New Beginning in a Strange Land," the Rev. S. J. Williams, former pastor of the Church of God here, told Harding High School seniors and an audience of 1,500 Sunday afternoon that whatever life brings, it will demand from each student his best in fulfilling the will of God.

The minister challenged some 350 graduates to set high goals and to help create an atmosphere of peace and love in the new world they face. He urged the young people to put God first in all they do, to place others second, and selves last.

The address was delivered during the annual baccalaureate service held in Harding's auditorium.

On the threshold of a new life, you must sacrifice many things to make room for richer and better ones, the minister declared.

"You will be faced with the tremendous responsibility of making many extremely important decisions and choices," the Rev. Mr. Williams told the students. Among these, he said, will be selection of a lifetime mate, how and where to pursue a career and adjusting to new situations.

"Our society has become greater than just a community affair—it is worldwide. Each one of you must find a way to improve it, rather than just fit into it," he emphasized.

The first step in meeting the challenges of this new and strange land is to find the will of God for your life and take a place of responsibility in your church. "Christ must be in your every decision if you would overcome the

Parliament To Go Along On Demands

Deputies Seen Issuing Virtual Blank Check Authority to Leader

PARIS (AP)—The French Parliament today began to jam through the sweeping grant of power demanded by Gen. Charles de Gaulle so France's new premier can hasten to rebellious Algeria.

In the first of three ballots the National Assembly hoped to put through today, the deputies voted 337-199 to continue the special emergency powers in Algeria with which French governments for more than three years have fought the Moslem rebellion there.

Debates Full Power Call

Then the Assembly turned to debate on the No. 1 demand made on it by De Gaulle before it elected him premier Sunday—his call for full powers to rule France for the next six months by decree.

The Assembly and the Senate met almost continuously so that De Gaulle can land in Algeria Tuesday or Wednesday to cope with his most immediately problem — the insurgent army leaders and French colonists whose defiance of Premier Pierre Pflimlin's government brought the World War II hero out of the political wilderness.

Prospects Viewed as Good

Prospects were that in another 12 to 24 hours of near continuous sessions, the general's demand for a virtual blank check would be approved.

The Assembly voted the tall, grim-faced wartime resistance leader into office by a 329-224 vote Sunday night after he insisted he be given a free hand to run France for the next six months.

The general made his sweeping demands in a cold, calm six-minute speech to the hushed chamber. He needed the powers, he said, to avert a "breakup and perhaps civil war" in France.

De Gaulle said he was demand-

Algerians Are Angered With Cabinet Choice

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—Signs of sharp disappointment with the newly invested government of Gen. Charles de Gaulle increased in this insurgent capital today.

From the streets of Algiers to the back offices of Government House, people were talking and acting almost as if they had been double-crossed.

After 20 days of pressure applied mainly through mass street demonstrations throughout the country, the insurgents reached their declared goal: A Paris government headed by De Gaulle.

But, instead of the expected house cleaning in Paris, De Gaulle reached back into the roundly condemned "rule of parties" for the stalwarts of his new Cabinet.

"The same old political hacks," said one disgusted European settler here.

A particularly bitter pill was the cabinet post given the outgoing premier, Pierre Pflimlin. His effigy has been dragged through the streets of Algiers on a rope.

Knots of people in cafes expressed bewilderment as to why the Gaullist deputy, Jacques Soustelle, was left off the De Gaulle list. The former governor general of Algeria has given political backbone to the insurgent move since he fled Paris to come here in support of the rebellion.

The insurgent radio continued to broadcast coded messages which in the past three weeks have been directed supposedly at secret agents in Metropolitan France.

A demonstration at Forum Square was set for tonight.

One Algiers resident said grimly: "Maybe we'll have to storm the government headquarters here again."

Taxes, School Aid Issues in Iowa Primary

DES MOINES (AP)—Tax methods and school aid were the major issues as Iowans voted in a primary election today.

Republicans and Democrats were selecting their choices to run next fall for governor, eight congressional seats and other state offices. Neither of Iowa's two Republican U. S. senators has to run for re-election this year.

Heavy balloting, spurred by an unusually large slate of congressional candidates, was forecast.

Political observers watched the election to determine whether the Democrats can hold their gains of 1956, when they elected a governor for the first time in 20 years and cracked the solid GOP congressional delegation?

Democratic Gov. Herschel Loveless has no primary opposition.

The Republican governorship contest has produced most of the fireworks as the two candidates, Dr. William G. Murray, an Iowa State College professor, and Lt. Gov. William H. Nicholas have clashed over tax philosophy.

Murray, making his first try for public office, has proposed raising the sales tax from two to three cent and using the extra money to help pay the costs of local school districts.

Nicholas opposes any tax increases and says the Republicans can't beat Loveless in November on a three per cent sales tax program.

Both have aimed barbs at Loveless for vetoing bills to provide new buildings at state educational institutions.

Soviet Ships Off Coast of Canada Stir Speculation

WASHINGTON (AP) — American officials are wondering what, besides fishing, half a dozen Soviet vessels may be doing about 100 miles off Canada's east coast.

The ships have been scouted, and U.S. naval and air officers noted that the number never seems to vary much, whether or not there are fish in the area. The vessels have been seen near an area marked by buoys flying small Soviet flags.

The place where the Soviet ships have been stationed lies in international waters and the general area is visited by fishing craft of a number of nations.

There was speculation the Russians might be engaged in observing movements of American and Canadian ships and aircraft.

The Soviet government complained that an American military plane had flown too close to one of the vessels.

An American official, who asked to remain anonymous, told reporters the charge was baseless.

COMPETITION?

Wait 'til you hear about Steel!

That stag line could go twice around the ballroom before it outnumbered the steel companies that are in constant competition with one another.

Actual count shows over 250 companies in manufacture and sale of iron, steel or iron and steel products. They're spread all across the country. They employ about 600,000 workers and have well over 900,000 stockholders.

Steel users are "sitting pretty" — lots of places to shop. Every steelmaker must be on his toes.

And, besides all the other competing steel companies, each steel plant is also in constant competition with the producers of other metals here and abroad — and with producers of cement, lumber, glass, paper and plastics.

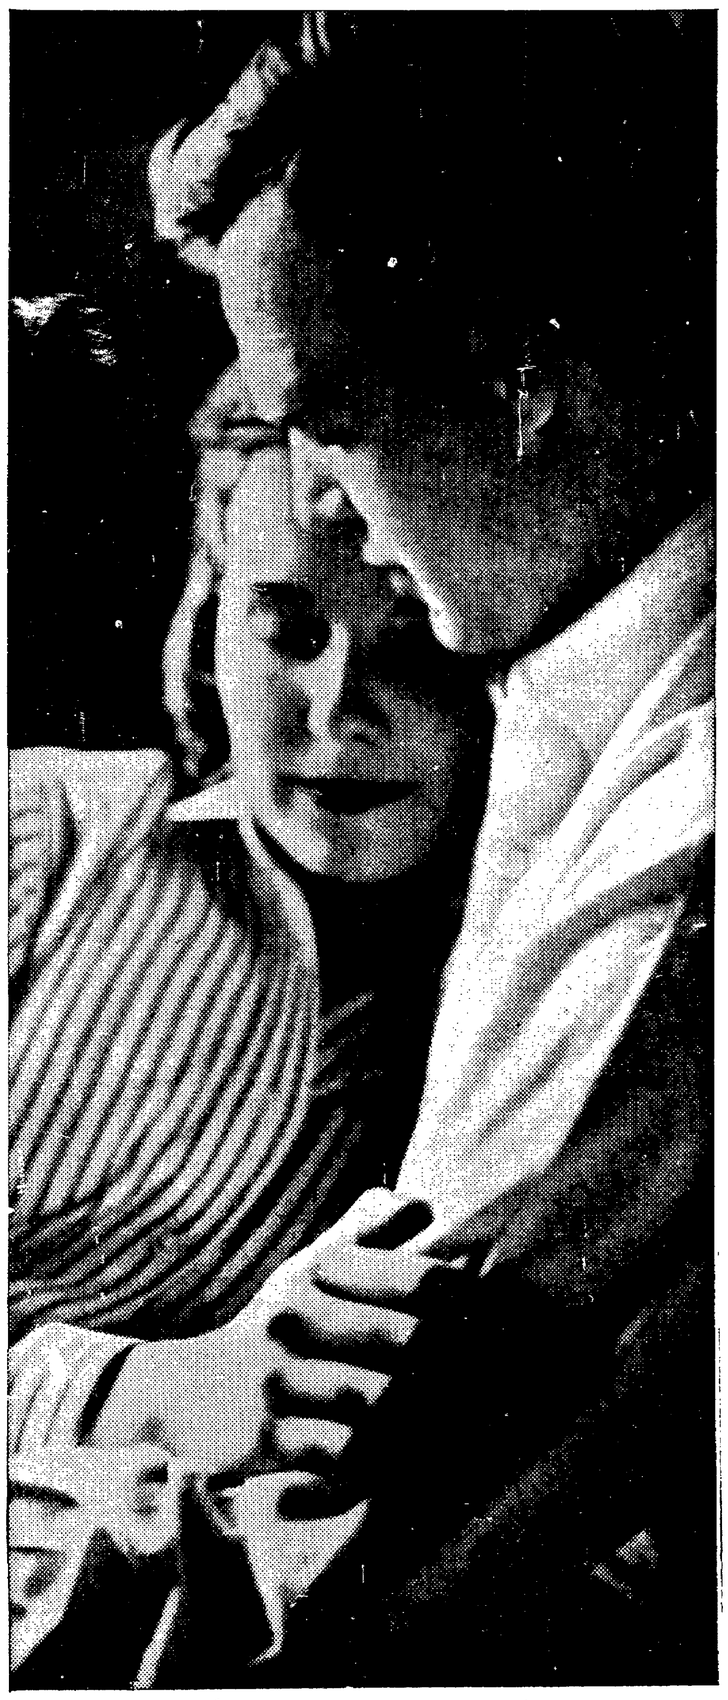
"I shall care for you all my life ...and all of yours"



In the marriage ceremony, the groom vows to care for his bride as long as they both shall live.

But most husbands today go beyond this pledge. Through life insurance a man can provide for his wife and children longer than he may live.

How much longer? That depends, of course, on the size of the policies in his life insurance program, and on the size of the family, among other things.

Many a husband has a plan that provides an income for his wife as long as she shall live.

Because a life insurance policy is a contract, its wording is cold, legal and formal. But no wife misses the tender message of devotion that lies between the lines.

The fifth grade class of Miss Dorothy Buckley entertained Mrs. Martha Penry's fifth grade group from Oakland Friday. After a tour of the school, Olney students presented a musical program. Diplomas Have Extra Significance for 2 in Class

Girl Polio Victims Take Studies Under Home Instruction Plan

By JUNE ROSEBERRY
Marion Star Education Editor

A high school diploma has many meanings for the student about to bid farewell to formal education, but for two girls who will be graduated from Harding High School Thursday night, the scroll of parchment especially will symbolize an accomplishment.

Afflicted with polio in early childhood, Marlene McBeth and Janet Canvendish, the two graduates, since have been crippled and confined to wheelchairs.

BECAUSE THEY have been unable to attend school, they received home instruction under a program carried out by the public schools in cooperation with the State Department of Education. Their teacher has been Mrs. Jessie Roest.

Marlene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McBeth of 467 N. Grand Ave. and Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cavendish of 455 Shady Nook Ct. Janet will share the honor of graduating Thursday night with her younger sister, Lois, 18, who has been enrolled in the distributive education program.

A striking 20-year-old blond, Janet has been on home instruction ever since coming to Marion about three and one-half years ago. Although she contracted the disease while only two and one-half years old, she nevertheless attended public school in West Virginia for the first few years of her education.

Her own decision at the age of 13 to undergo extensive therapy and surgery led to spending three years in Shriners Hospital at Philadelphia, Pa. Today she has regained use of both arms and hands as a result, but can not walk without the help of multiple braces She thus spends most of her time in a wheelchair.

The oldest of eight children, Marlene, an attractive 18-year-old brunette, has received all 12 years of education at her N. Grand Ave. home. Stricken with the crippling disease at the age of six months, she never has attended public school. Mrs. Roest has taught her throughout her schooling.

Despite paralysis of the legs, Marlene has use of her toes which she ingeniously has put to work in typing. She typed much of her homework on a second-hand typewriter bought by her parents until the machine broke down recently. She has use only of her left hand.

HOME INSTRUCTION STUDENTS TO GRADUATE. Among Harding High School seniors receiving diplomas at commencement exercises in the Veterans Memorial Coliseum Thursday night will be Janet Cavendish (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cavendish of 355 Shady Nook Ct. and Marlene McBeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McBeth of 467 N. Grand Ave. Both girls were stricken with polio in early childhood and since have been confined to wheelchairs. They are receiving diplomas under the home instruction program.

Even though learning at home and missing the companionship of classmates might have proven an obstacle to them, they surmounted this, as well as physical limitations.

MRS. ROEST says both girls are conscientious and energetic students. She sees them as normal girls with a determination to succeed. "They are no different from any other student," she says.

Both Marlene and Janet voice the hope of procuring jobs here, not on a part-time, but full-time basis.

They realize a high school diploma is the key to this goal. Marlene already has had experience in selling notions such as greeting cards and plans to continue working in this line on a broader basis. She enjoys meeting and talking with people.

An enthusiastic amateur artist, Janet hopes to find work in sketching or designing. She plans to take a home course in art after graduation to prepare her for a career in this field.

Poised and self - reliant, both girls are seen often outside their homes, mingling with friends and attending social events. Janet went to her first dance a few weeks ago, the Senior Prom. She hopes to be among students at the senior breakfast and dance following graduation exercises Thursday night.

Both girls attended the senior assembly held recently at Harding and have come to feel they are a real part of the class of 1958, despite their general absence from school activities.

An avid sports enthusiast, Janet often can be seen rooting for the Prexies during sports events at the high school. At home she enjoys listening to popular and classical music and doing extensive reading.

BOTH ENJOY shopping downtown. They are a familiar sight on main streets. And on Sunday both are found among church worshippers. Janet attends Greenwood EUB Church, and Marlene, the Church of Christ in Christian Union, where she also is a member of the Sunday School.

During the week Marlene not only has found time for homework and part-time selling, but to pursue hobbies such as crocheting and embroidering which she does with her one good hand. Among her other interests is popular music.

Marlene and Janet are not alone in graduating under the home instruction program from Harding this year. A third student, Sue Elicker, will receive a diploma under the program.

Taken seriously ill early this school year, Sue finished her educational requirements for graduation while recuperating at home. She now is fully recovered from her illness and plans to enter college in the fall.

Enrolled at the local branch of Ohio State University, Sue hopes to pursue a course in pre-medicine. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elicker of 182 Gurley Ave.

Unlike Marlene and Janet, Sue will join seniors in the commencement processional and will receive her diploma on the Coliseum stage Thursday night. The other two girls will be presented the scrolls at their seats in the audience.

Navajo Indian Will Graduate With '58 Harding High Class

Among Harding students who will receive diplomas Thursday night will be Anita Tsinnajinnie, a full-blooded Navajo Indian who has attended the local high school two years.

Believed to be the first Indian to graduate from Harding, Anita has played an active role in the life of her school during her two years in Marion. She has resided with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ferriman of 145 Johns St.

Parents To See Graduation

Here to see her receive a diploma during commencement exercises will be her parents, two sisters and a younger brother. They made the 1,800-mile trip from the Navajo Indian reservation near Cuba, N.M., this weekend by car.

With them was Mary Tsinnajinnie, Anita's younger sister who also attended public school here last year, but returned home last summer. Mary was an eighth grader at Eber Baker Junior High School.

Anita has ambitious plans for the future, hoping to attend Highlands University in Las Vegas, N.M., on a four-year scholarship. She wants to major in physical education with teaching as her goal.

The scholarship for which she has applied, one offered by her tribe, provides all college expenses but stipulates that the recipient must teach four years on the Indian reservation after college graduation.

In Many Activities

While at Harding she has participated in many activities. She sang in the junior choir and both years has been active in the Girls Athletic Association. She served as points and awards chairman of the local association this year and as publicity chairman last year. She also participated in Junior Achievement. She has attended Forest Lawn Presbyterian Church and sang in the church choir Anita also holds membership in the Circle M Saddle Club.

Miss Tsinnajinnie, like many another teen-ager, is an avid rock and roll fan, enjoys attending movies, dancing and all types of sports.

Harding is the first public school she has attended. Previously she was enrolled at Indian schools in Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico, all sponsored by the government.

Kerosene-Boiled Eggs Bring Fire Department

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It wasn't the eggs, it was what they were boiled in, firemen said.

There were plenty of firemen on hand to discuss the situation—the crews of two pumpers, a ladder truck, fire squad, inhalator, and a battalion chief. They all gathered Sunday because of the fellow who tried to boil the eggs, a roomer at a house near the downtown area.

He used kerosene instead of water for boiling, they said. Damage was confined to the eggs.

48 States Might Be Enough

Southern senators threatening to block statehood for Alaska by any means, foul or fair, if the issue reaches the Senate, bring to mind a requirement of the U.S. Constitution — that the United States must guarantee to every state a republican form of government.

Whether this guarantee has been honored in some of the states whose spokesmen wield tremendous power in Congress would make a lively constitutional debate in itself. Their opposition to Alaska is based squarely on their opposition to increasing the potential strength of the civil rights bloc in Congress.

Whether or not it could be proved to the satisfaction of the Supreme Court that a republican form of government exists in their states, the objecting senators make no secret of their misgivings about the form of government that would exist in Alaska, if admitted to the Union, or in the Hawaiian Islands, or Puerto Rico, if they were to be admitted. They fear that their position in Congress would be weakened by the addition of states in which representation would be guaranteed to meet unconditionally the requirement of a republican form of government.

If the Union were being put together again from scratch in the mid-20th century, willingness to meet this requirement would be the test for membership.

It suggests that if the idea were to stabilize the total number of states at 48, willingness to honor the constitutional guarantee of republicanism would be the chief test. This would mean that states applying for admittance would have to show their qualifications were superior to the qualifications of states already holding membership in the federal republic. For every state admitted, one would have to drop out, being unwilling to improve its credentials.

The idea is preposterous, of course. But it will come to mind often if a Senate showdown on statehood for Alaska brings to light an opposition based on repudiation of the principles that Alaskans are eager to uphold.

Government by Compromise

Nothing makes a better impression than the theory of government by compromise. Americans think it is the secret of their success—and it is when used properly.

The postal bill that has been whooped through the Senate and House, on the other hand, is an example of compromise gone haywire.

The object of the bill was to produce more postal revenue, to lessen the drain of the postal deficit on the U.S. Treasury. The key to revenue production was a five-cent rate on first-class mail.

But to make the bill acceptable to postal employes and to all others who think postal employes are entitled to more pay, increased rates were to be accompanied by higher pay rates.

This presented an ideal situation for the kind of compromise that is the bane of representative democracy.

Senators and representatives made the bill palatable to political taste by giving the Post Office Department half of what it wanted in the form of a rate increase and twice what it wanted in the form of pay increases. They split the difference in one instance and doubled the difference in the other instances.

The pay increases will blot up so much of the rate increases that Congress might as well have enacted no postal bill at all. Since there was no objection to a five-cent rate and no valid objection to the other increases proposed, the only way to justify a higher pay increase than was asked for would have been to vote at least as high a rate increase as was recommended.

Postal employes presumably will be deeply grateful. Users of the mails presumably will be grateful. The U.S. Treasury and its clients, the taxpayers, will be stuck again.

It Could Prove Embarrassing

Second sight and, in some instances, second thought on emergency federal legislation to provide extra benefits for the unemployed are giving Washington something to think about.

The favorite Washington supposition, that the country depends entirely on the rate at which it hands out money, has been challenged. The Department of Labor estimates that as few as six states would accept extra benefits for the unemployed if they became available.

Some states, like Ohio, would prefer to pay whatever extra benefits are needed out of their own reserves. Some are not convinced that any extra benefits are needed.

All are skittish about the deal they would have to make with the federal government for repayment of the money advanced to them, particularly if it meant a future increase in their tax on employers. This would drive employers into states with no increase.

The trouble began when the Eisenhoser administration accepted a clause in the proposed law that gives each state the choice of accepting or rejecting federal help. Liberals who earned their reputation by giving away other people's money knew this was a mistake and said so. Poeple must not be encouraged to practice self-reliance.

They knew that their kind of "liberalism" would die on the vine if it were made optional, just as the confiscatory taxes it takes to support their "liberality" would cease if the American people had a chance to accept them or reject them.

There will be extensions of unemployment compensation in states with severe and prolonged unemployment. But it will not necessarily be the result of a federal handout from Washington. Unemployment compensation is still a state responsibility, and regardless of the Washington point of view there are still citizens of the United States who remember it is a federation of sovereign states, not an American version of authoritarianism.

This Is the Genuine Article

There can be breath-taking beauty on a winter morning when festoons of snow are draped from tree branches.

Some are able to see special beauty in the unadorned blacks, grays and browns of winter.

There is a large and sentimental minority with a tearfully professed fondness for September and autumn leaves.

There is a faction with a robust partiality to the good old summertime when the living is easy, meaning plenty to eat and not too much to wear.

But the genuine article in natural beauty is the end of May and the beginning of June when the stage is freshly set for summertime but has not been used yet; when the grass is new, the leaves are crisp, the new growth on the roses is tender and there are showers of honeysuckle blossoms whenever the wind blows.

This is the season for close inspection of things that will not bear close inspection later on when they have become middle-aged in nature's chronology — the tufts on the tips of a blue spruce, the color of the new bark on a young pear tree, the texture of a skunk cabbage in the marsh, the smooth surface of lilac leaves.

It is a time to appreciate the craftsmanship of barn swallows who can master cantilevered construction, ground moles that can build subways in seed beds with no blueprints to guide them, quail able to tinsulate a nestful of eggs against chill from the ground without having attended college.

Everything is wonderfully new and incredibly beautiful — the way it always is in dreams but never is in reality. It lasts for only a few days, then the bloom of newness is gone.

Don't delay. Look now!

Obstacle Course

The income tax charges on which Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. has been indicted by a special federal grand jury are trifling in terms of the money involved. There is nothing trifling, however, about the trouble buzzing around the clergyman-congressman's head.

Two of his congressional secretaries have been convicted of income tax evasion. He has denied under oath that he accepted kickbacks from his congressional secretaries.

In his district, he is under fire by the Democratic organization. In Congress, he is under criticism for his frequent absences from the House of Representatives.

There are those who criticize him, too, for a standard of living rarely associated with a religious leader. In his 1956 estimate of his income and wealth, he said he owned a cooperative apartment in Harlem and a row house in Washington; that his wife. Hazel Scott, owned a 10-room house in Westchester County, and between them had had an income of $115,000.

In short, Rep. Powell has brought himself to attention in a way that makes a review of his income tax returns inevitable. Those who cannot clear the obstacles on that obstacle course should not publicize the fact they have entered the contest.

Charge Denied

The West German Auto Industry Assn. spokesman who told Associated Press Americans have been buying small foreign cars because they want to save money, the way most Europeans always have needed to save it, has come closer to the truth than most speculations about this mysterious trend.

He could have come closer had he added the statement that U.S. cars would be popular among Europeans, if the latter could afford them. Perhaps if they sell enough of their economy models in this country they can buy more American models to satisfy their ego.

A few days ago, a Chrysler Corp. vice president, Byron J. Nichols, was telling the Annual Credit Congress of the National Association of Credit Men what he thought of the popularity of small foreign cars.

He said if public demand ever justified production of a small car by his company, it would be designed for American needs and conditions. He then went on to comment on the charge by some auto industry critics that its emphasis on bigger, fancier, more powerful cars started the recession.

"We are no more the creators of recession than the appliance business," he said. "When have you heard they ought to make refrigerators smaller and plainer as a way to put us back on the road to prosperity?"

The Magician?

Taxpayers and TVA

By Raymond Moley

While the Tennessee Valley Authority is celebrating its silver anniversary, it may be well to consider a very important financial aspect which concerns every taxpayer in the United States, as well as every beneficiary of that institution.

Just what is the status of the investment that the United States as a whole has made in the TVA in the course of its quarter-century of life?

This investment, if that is what it is to be called, according to a report of the comptroller general of the United States covering the fiscal year 1957, is about two billion dollars. The government's equity in the power assets of the TVA is approximately $1,614,000,000.

On this outlay from the U.S. government, no interest is or has been paid. The law specifies this exemption.

Under the Government Corporations Appropriation Act of 1948, the TVA should pay 87 million dollars into the U.S. Treasury during the 10-year period ending June 30 of this year, and an equivalent amount during each 10-year period following until about 350 million has been paid.

IT IS ALSO required that new congressional appropriations for power facilities be repaid over a period not to exceed 40 years after the facilities go into operation.

The TVA makes a very large profit on power sales but stands a loss on many other activities. The net is still very large. Comptroller General Campbell says in the report to which I referred:

"Therefore, we are continuing our recommendation that the authority be directed to pay interest on the investment of federal funds allocated to power, including construction in progress and investigations for future projects, at a rate adequate to reimburse the United States Treasury for the cost of providing funds and, if necessary, for the sound conduct of the power program, that the statutory repayment requirement be modified."

There are two quite different ways of characterizing the status of the United States so far as its so-called "investment" in the project is concerned.

One is that the United States is a creditor. If that be true, then the TVA is a very delinquent, not to say a bad, debtor.

Another characterization of the relationship is that the United States is a stockholder or investor. If that be true, it is a neglected stockholder and an unfortunate investor.

Basically, if this enterprise is good business, the United States and the TVA must be considered as two entities, and their relationship should be calculated under the normal conditions which prevail in a capitalistic society. This is only an elementary requirement in sound fiscal policy.

THERE IS A MORAL issue, too. The United States, which means all of us as taxpayers, has liberally given toward the development of a needy region. That region has recovered from the dark days of 1933 and is as prosperous as the rest of the country. Thus it should pay for the help it was given, especially since we all are laboring under crushing government expense.

If the Kerr bill, which would permit the TVA to issue its own securities, should be finally passed and approved by the President (it has already passed the Senate), the United States will no longer be the sole investor.

There will be private individuals who have bought the securities on the ground that there are ample "profits" to cover the investment and to pay interest. Then, under the present law, the United States will be relegated to an inferior status as compared with the new investors.

This is a strange way to compensate the taxpayers of the United States who gave so generously in days when the Tennessee Valley was in dire need.

In the Mail Bag

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — Things a columnist might never know, if he didn't open his mail:

That you could probably do without food 30 days more easily than you could go 100 hours without sleep. So why do modern people insist on shortening their lives by eating too much and sleeping too little?

HAL BOYLE

That when you tell someone he's "all wet," you're more accurate than you think. Roughly two thirds of the total body weight is made up of water.

That the most unnecessary survey we've ever heard of was the one that came up with this shocking conclusion: women talk more than men! What we need now is a survey to find out whether two plus two still equals four.

That Groucho Marx says: "We owe a great deal to our government. The question is, how are we ever going to get the money to pay it?"

THAT IF YOU'VE ever wondered about 'snail's speed', the answer is: the snail's speed has been scientifically clocked at .000353005 m.p.h.

That the population of New York City in 1729 was only 8,000, or about a fourth of the number who now work in Rockefeller Center alone.

That hospitable Ireland has the greatest number of hospital beds, percentagewise, of any country: one for every 67 persons.

That the male stiff collar is said to have been indirectly originated by the first Queen Bess of England. A homely dame, she hid her scrawny neck in a high stiffly starched ruff. Her courtiers, including Sir Walter Raleigh, gallantly followed suit, thus starting the fashion of starched collars for men.

That if you're lazy and want to worm your way out of digging in the back yard for your fish bait, the Fisherman Magazine gives this tip: turn to your pantry. Fish will nibble at a hook baited with macaroni, noodles, spaghetti, cheese or even sweet corn.

THAT MOTHER elephants very rarely give birth to twins. And by and large, you can't really blame them.

That if a girl tells you "I eat like a bird," don't take her out for dinner until you find out if the bird she has in mind is a baby crow. This little bird can eat its own weight in food in a single day.

That, in opening a fashionable ladies' clothing shop, one human factor you can't overlook is this: women seldom like to walk on the sunny side of a street. As a matter of further fact, isn't it true that after marriage few women like to walk at all?

That singer Johnny Desmond tells of the friendly prison warden, real palsy-walsy. He called all the inmates by their first numbers.

That three express trains in Germany now have telephones that enable passengers to ring their homes or offices anywhere in Europe. Ocean liners have this service, too. Why don't commercial airplanes have phones you can use in flight?

That in discussing the need for self-discipline, President Franklin D. Roosevelt liked to tell of a humble old Chinese Christian whose favorite prayer was, "Lord, reform Thy world, beginning with me."

Daily Bible Thought

"I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision." Acts 26:19. If ever a man was justified in calling it a day Paul was that man. He suffered beatings with rods, stonings, prison, shipwreck, hunger but none of these things moved Paul. He most of the time made his own living making tents and preached free. We regard him as the greatest mortal man that ever lived, but he made mistakes.

De Gaulle's Path Rocky

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — At this moment the self-assured Charles de Gaulle's head is high and his stride strong. Nevertheless, he is like a man walking barefooted through a field of broken bottles.

The French air cleared momentarily when he became premier Sunday.

But what may seem to De Gaulle today to be direct and simple solutions for the ills of France may before he's through turn into tortured dilemmas both for him and for his country.

French acceptance of him, on his terms, was a desperate compromise to avoid civil war. He was rammed down the country's throat by a rebellious army. Thus he had to be taken on faith in a hurry: both as to intention and as to judgment.

ALTHOUGH his announced purpose is to preserve the republic—and all he's done has been clothed in legality—he nevertheless has blessed the military chieftains who forced him upon France.

Yet something like this — emergency of a strongman — seemed inevitable. If not De Gaulle, eventually it would have been someone else or the army. French government — or, its parliamentary system — had become a farce and a disgrace.

The all-powerful Assembly, split into factions with each concerned about its own interests, proved incapable of running the country. So De Gaulle's first aim is to reform the government this way:

Through a constitutional change to make it more like the American system by making the executive branch stronger, the Assembly weaker, thus achieving a greater balance of power. This is one announced intention.

Another is to reach a satisfactory settlement in Algeria, where Moslem nationalists have fought the French army for years to obtain independence. But this is what the French who live in Algeria don't want.

To get things done De Gaulle, who despises politics and political horse-trading, must deal in one way or another with French politicians. One of his first acts was to put leaders of various political parties in his Cabinet.

He almost certainly will have to make political compromises to get some of what he wants. But he is not noted for compromise. And opposition to his acceptance in the first place, while in a minority, is still intense.

THUS THERE is ready-made opposition to him starting out. As he goes about reforms at home, it is likely the opposition will increase and not diminish. This will be a good test of his faith in democratic practices to get things done.

There is the fear — and there has been since the beginning — that once in power he will rely less on democratic processes and more on dictatorship, although he has now indicated he despises the authoritarian role.

But his worst trouble may come from the army and the extreme right if they feel he is making too much compromise with the left or if he offers an Algerian solution contrary to their desires.

THUS HE CAN expect from the army and the right a scrutiny as intense as the one focused on him by the left. But the effect of his solutions won't be limited to France alone.

For example: if his answer on Algeria pleases the army but infuriates the Moslem world, the West will be faced with the prospect of seeing all North Africa turn to communism or neutralism.

There is so much puzzlement about the French future under De Gaulle that the West can only guess what's next and hope for the best.

A shortage of summertime jobs for schoolteachers and their pupils would be a powerful argument for a longer school year, if the shortage became normal.

I can think of no taste treat to compare with fresh strawberries in the early summer — not even sweet corn or fresh cherry pie.

Whenever I see mechanized farming being carried on, I wish some of my farming ancestors who did all their work the hard way could have lived long enough to see some of the modern machinery.

Murder Case Set To Go to Hamilton Jury

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — The fate of Shirley Edward Campbell, 21-year-old hospital orderly charged with first degree murder in the death of a student nurse last January, was expected to be placed in the hands of a Butler County Common Pleas Court jury this afternoon.

Presentation of testimony in the case was completed Thursday and the trial then was recessed for the Memorial Day weekend holiday.

Judge P. P. Boli allowed each side an hour for closing arguments today and the case will go to the jury after he gives his instructions.

Campbell, a white man, is charged with both first degree murder and murder in perpetration of rape. The state has accused him of having pushed Miss Sylvesta G. Andy, 20, of Piqua to her death from a fifth floor roof at Mercy Hospital when she resisted his advances. Miss Andy was a negro.

Campbell pleaded innocent by reason of insanity but officials of the Lima State Hospital declared him to be sane and to know right from wrong.

The jury that will decide the case is made up of nine women and three men.

Chief of Police Offers Pointers To Help Stop Home Burglaries

Some words of caution for Marion residents were issued today by Police Chief Justin Cornely as the city joined in the national observance of Burglary Prevention Week.

National statistics show that there is one house broken into each minute and the number is on the increase, the chief said.

While the majority of the breakins are at night when the burglar is concealed by darkness there are a number of burglaries staged in the daytime also, the chief said.

The Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police also is observing the burglary prevention week which extends through Saturday. They say that experienced burglars know when to invade a house and it is up to the occupant of a house to fool the burglar by giving the impression someone is home even though the house is empty.

The association reports that there were 13,000 burglaries in Ohio in the first six months of last year and that this was 3½ per cent of the nation's total.

Local observance of the week also is urged in a proclamation issued by Mayor Wendell L. Strong.

Chief Cornely said the following precautions will help to keep burglars away while the house is empty by making them think someone is home:

1. Leave a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer to turn lights on and off each evening.
2. Cancel all deliveries (if the house is to be empty more than a day or two) of milk, newspapers and mail (by having the post office or a neighbor hold your mail until your return).
3. Lock all doors and windows.
4. Have your lawn mowed at least once a week. Tell only one neighbor you are going away. Have the neighbor check the house occasionally and notify police if any prowlers are seen near it.
6. Notify police as to date you are leaving and date on which you will return.
7. Do not close blinds or draw shades, leave them as you normally do when at home.
8. Do not leave valuables behind. Put them in a safety deposit box.
9. Do not tell anyone about valuable possessions in the house.
10. Do not broadcast the news of your leaving to the whole neighborhood.

Report Financed by Trujillo On Galindez Case Is Released

NEW YORK (AP)—A report financed by Gen. Rafael L. Trujillo, head of the Dominican Republic, finds no evidence linking the Caribbean dictatorship to the disappearance of Dr. Jesus de Galindez.

The report, prepared by lawyer Morris Ernst, implied that Galindez, who vanished more than two years ago, might still be alive.

Ernst suggested that the mystery might be related to Galindez's position with the Basque government-in-exile and the more than a million dollars he collected for it.

Galindez, a Spanish exile, was a Columbia University lecturer and a bitter critic of Trujillo.

Foes of the Dominican strongman have accused the Trujillo regime of kidnaping and possibly slaying Galindez. The republic's officials have repeatedly denied this charge.

The report, published Sunday, came to this major conclusion: "No accusation connecting the Dominican Republic or any of its officials with the disappearance of Galindez is supported by any evidence; and this covers all theories. . ."

On the night of March 12, 1956, Galinedez taught a regular class at Columbia and then was driven by one of his students to a subway stop.

To public knowledge, no one has ever seen him again.

HOUSES 'BUILT ON SAND'. Two $27,000, newly-constructed homes in the Crestmont tract of Oakland, Calif., were evacuated Sunday when they started to slide down a 100-foot slope, off of their foundations. The attractive homes, constructed on filled land on concrete piles, had moved about six feet by mid-afternoon and all utilities were cut off. Workmen bulldozed a large trench at the bottom of the slope to catch the houses and dirt if they slid further before they are demolished. The patios of the houses extended about 20 feet from their rear and were supported by the piling that is shown at odd angles. (UPI Telephoto)

Western Union Strike Averted by Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nationwide telegraph strike has been averted by agreement in principle on a new contract between Western Union and the Commercial Telegraphers Union.

The two-year agreement still must be drawn up formally and ratified by the union. It calls for a six-cent hourly wage increase, effective June 1, plus an additional five cents an hour effective Sept. 1. Workers involved now average $1.80 an hour.

County Youths To Seek State Driving Titles

Almost 300 of the best young automobile drivers in the state of Ohio will assemble in Zanesville Sunday to determine the state champions.

This will be the annual Ohio Teen-Age Road-e-o co-sponsored by the Ohio Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Standard Oil Co.

Competing as representatives from Marion County will be Ron Converse, a senior at Green Camp High School, and Miss Pat Schwaderer, a 1958 graduate of Pleasant High School.

Accompanying them to the state finals this weekend will be Charles Sidenstricker and Donald Hall, members of the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the local contest.

The Marion County boy and girl won out over 46 other county high school boys and girls in local skill-driving competition held Sunday, May 4.

The contestants will be the winning boys and girls from 138 local teen-age road-e-os which have been held in various parts of the state during the past weeks.

The state finals in this annual skill-driving event will be held at the Country Fair Shopping Center on Rt. 77 north of Zanesville, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. A total of $3,400 in scholarships will be awarded, along with plaques.

The winning boy and the winning girl will each receive a $1,000 scholarship, with $500 for second place winners and $200 for third place winners.

The boy or girl finishing with the highest score will go on to compete in the national finals at Washington, D.C., in August.

Health Is Priceless Yet Costs Less Than Ever

beauty costs more than health

Figure it out. The average family doctor bill is only $66 a year. Three $20 permanents plus a few sessions at the beauty parlor cost a lot more. One reason for medical costs staying so low is modern drugs and prescriptions.

"BOSSY STEPS OUT"

"Zeke," cried farmer Jones, "your cow broke the fence and ate up my vegetables."

"All right, I'll send you a quart of milk."

A farmer's life, like your groceryman's, is full of little unexpected events. Farm animals are always a source of worry . . . they are also a source of pride. This month, bossy steps out . . . to promote her many products. June is "National Dairy Month."

The little ole cow is a very important animal to our way of life. She produces our most nearly complete food . . . milk. Its many by-products of butter, cheese, ice-cream and evaporated milk account for over 25% of all the food consumed in the United States.

National magazines and T.V. programs will be showing some pretty fancy recipes containing dairy products. Perry Como will show a "Snackeroo". This is a cottage cheese salad with pineapple slices, Bunyanburger with toasted cheese and served with a tall mug of milk. Looks like a tempting lunch.

We'll be "tieing-in" to all this national promotion by featuring some down-to-earth values on all dairy products during the whole month of June. Read our price ad . . . then buy the featured items. You'll save money, we'll be happy, and your family will stay healthy . . . which reminds me —

Ever hear about the gal who wasn't worried about her health in fact . . . not even her head. We've called it "Shoot the Gray" and that's for next week.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel shares were strong as the stock market penetrated new high ground for 1958 in fairly heavy trading early this afternoon.

Expectations that steel industry operations would show the sharpest rise of the year helped steel stocks make sizable gains.

Aircrafts, coppers and some rubbers also did well as industrial stocks led the way for a general advance. Rail and utilities were up modestly.

More stable political conditions in France aided market sentiment, and further help came from such items as a drop in the number of workers receiving jobless pay and a spring increase in gasoline sales.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks reached a new closing high for the year on Thursday and made further upward strides.

Gains of about two points were made by U.S. Steel, Goodyear and Douglas Aircraft.

Republic Steel and Youngstown Sheet rose well over a point apiece.

Up better than a point were International Nickel, Gulf Oil and Du Pont.

About a point to the good were Goodrich, Anaconda, Kennecott, Union Carbide and Westinghouse Electric.

Many leading rails showed little change. Illinois Central, Baltimore & Ohio and Santa Fe were fractionally higher. American Telephone also was ahead a fraction.

U.S. government bonds declined.

Congress Begins To Pay Piper for Lag in Legislative Action

5-Day Work Week Slated By Leaders

Legislators Shift Into High Gear To Reach August Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress starts paying the piper this week for its slow pace during the first five months of this session.

If it's to meet the early August adjournment target set by its leaders, it will have to shift into high gear as it returns from a long Memorial Day weekend.

Leaders have mapped out a five-day-a-week work schedule which rules out any extended recesses in June and July, except for the Fourth of July weekend.

Faces Stiff Schedule

This week the House faces a program that its own leaders concede may not be met. It calls for action on pay raises for federal employes, legislation to create a space agency, appropriations for the Defense Department, extension of the reciprocal trade program, and continuation of present corporate income and excise tax rates.

Little trouble is likely over the 38-billion-dollar defense money bill and a bill to continue for another year corporate and excise tax rates due to drop July 1.

But it may take several days to dispose of legislation to extend the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act for five years beyond June 30. Protectionist forces in the House are expected to fight to cut down the extension period and limit the added tariff-cutting powers the legislation would give the President.

The Senate has acted on only one of the major bills on this week's House docket. That is the measure to raise the pay of federal employes.

Senate Action Lags

The Senate probably will spend most of this week debating the $3,712,000,000 foreign aid authorization bill already passed by the House.

Another controversial issue in the Senate's lap is a bill to make Alaska the 49th state. The House passed this bill last week.

Major bills still to be considered by both branches deal with general labor law revision, foreign aid appropriations, federal scholarships, and reorganization of the Defense Department.

All in all, congressional leaders are pessimistic about prospects for adjournment by Aug. 2. Most of them would settle now for going home in mid-August.

Burglary

The entire house was ransacked but the only things found missing were an electric razor and two sets of cuff links, Mr. Smith told police. He said the house had been empty since Thursday night.

The attempted burglary was at the Marmon Builders and Supply Co. at 202 E. Center St. Police said that one of two hasps on large double doors at the rear of the building was pried loose but the other held and entrance was not gained.

Disc Jockey From Cleveland To Spin Records for Hop at 'Y'

A benefit Record Hop featuring Bruce MacDonald of WJW of Cleveland will be held June 13 under sponsorship of the Marion Rotary Club in both gymnasiums of the YMCA.

Mr. MacDonald, a popular disc jockey in the Cleveland and lower Michigan area, spends a major portion of his time giving record hops for the teen-age crowd.

Beginning the dance at 8 p.m. there will be contests. Prizes of records and albums will be awarded throughout the evening until the 11 p.m. closing.

A native of Mauwatosa, Wis., Mr. MacDonald received his speech and dramatic training at the University of Illinois.

Formerly news editor of a Chicago radio station, his newscast in November, 1943, was the first program aired from WJW in Cleveland, after the station had moved from Akron.

His radio career was broken between 1944-46 while he served with the Army in the China-Burma-India theater as a radio correspondent and reporter. He is married and has two sons.

The dance will be open to all junior high and senior high school students in Marion and surrounding communities.

An estimated 500 to 700 teenagers are expected to jam the "Y" for this attraction.

Tickets are now on sale at the YMCA from members of Co-ed Council, Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs Selected record shops and businesses also will have advance ticket sales. Cost is 50 cents per person.

The dance has been especially scheduled by the Rotary Club and the YMCA to provide the best talent available for the first big social event after the closing of school.

BRUCE MacDONALD
Will Appear at Benefit Dance

The funds from the dance will be used in remodeling the YMCA Club Co-ed Room, which is now under construction and should be open before July 1.

When completed the Co-ed Room will be open for other big social events for junior and senior high school boys and girls.

Unlike the sock hops held previously, shoes will be worn at this dance.

obstacles which are before you," he explained.

THE SPEAKER declared that the "new land of the future" demands each person's best. "Large or small, find your talents and use them for God," he urged.

His advice to students was to study the word of God and "live, fight and even die if necessary to uphold the word which God said was truth."

The Rev. Mr. Williams stressed that truth must be practiced and used as a tool in Christianity. Only through Christianity can you find success and happiness in your new and strange adventure, said the minister. He concluded his message by repeating words from a stirring prayer once recited by St. Francis of Assisi.

The Rev. Mr. Williams is the father of Neal Williams, a member of the graduating class.

OTHER MINISTERS participating in the service were the Rev. Eugene O. Hilt, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, invocation; the Rev. Stewart Labat, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, scripture; the Rev. Robert Byler, Epworth Methodist Church, prayer, and the Rev. J. Lewis Collins, Wesleyan Chapel Church, benediction.

The service opened with Robert Griffith, a senior, presenting an organ recital. The Harding High School Choir under the direction of L. G. Jones sang the anthem "Voices of God" by Rhea. The audience joined with graduates in singing the class hymn, "Nearer My God To Thee."

Seniors marched into the auditorium to the organ processional of "March of the Priests" by Mendelssohn. Recessional music at the conclusion of the program was Greig's "Triumphal March."

Serving as ushers were these junior boys: Barry Brandt, Wallace White, David Howison, David Boerger, Howard Klehm, Richard Myers, Curtis Neimeister, Ray Schumacker, Dennis Shoemaker, Richard Snodgrass, Peter Sykes, Daniel Yinger, John Swistak and Richard Weston.

Student council members were in charge of decorations.

Commencement exercises will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Marion Coliseum with Claude V. Courter, superintendent of Cincinnati public schools, as the speaker. The program is open to the public.

The annual senior breakfast will take place at 10 a.m. that day and the senior dance will follow the graduation program in the Harding cafeteria.

Court Here Dismisses Literature Sale Charge

A charge of selling obscene literature filed against E. E. Stoneburner, 26, of the Buckeye Trailer Court was dismissed in Marion Municipal Court Thursday for lack of evidence to prosecute.

Stoneburner was arrested on the charge by sheriff's deputies and pleaded not guilty at his arraignment. He was held under a $500 bond pending the hearing Thursday.

In a similar charge filed against him in Marion County Juvenile Court, Stoneburner was found not guilty in a hearing last Wednesday.

News of Granges

BETHLEHEM

Adze Oosterwoud of the Netherlands was guest speaker at the Wednesday night meeting of the Bethlehem grange held in the grange hall.

Mr. Oosterwoud, who is spending the summer on the William G. Miller farm under the sponsorship of the Marion County Farmers Union, spoke on his native land, illustrating his talk with two movies of the Netherlands, "Farming Under the Sea," and "Netherland Dairyland."

During the business meeting, conducted by Master James Hall, Ralph Williams was elected delegate and H. H. Beringer alternate to the state grange convention. Mr. Hall announced that the annual grange memorial services will be held at the meeting of the Pomona Grange in Martel, Saturday, June 14.

The program was opened with group singing led by Mrs. Carrol Williams, lecturer. Happy birthday wishes were sung to Gary McMahan.

Following the program a miscellaneous shower was held for Mr. and Mrs. Dale Yake, newlyweds. The new Mrs. Yake was the former Miss Jean Fogle. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Beringer and Brent Beringer.

The next meeting will be a Ladies night affair with Mrs. Beringer, Mrs. Robert Denzer, Mrs. Robert Briggs and Mrs. Lewis Scott in charge of arrangements. Refreshments for that meeting will be sandwiches.

they planned to keep Reuther from stalling until model changeover time would give him a more favorable opportunity to strike. Reuther said it would be insane to strike now when the industry has 750,000 unsold 1958 model cars.

But in setting their own terms for keeping plants in operation, the companies cut off collecting dues from UAW members and turning the money over to the union. Now the union will have to collect its own dues.

100 Blood Donors Still Needed Here

Nearly 100 donors still are needed for the visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile unit to Marion on Wednesday. The quota for the day is 160 pints of blood.

With the blood supply critically low at the Columbus Regional Blood Center and Marion behind in its quota so far this year, residents of the city and area are urged to visit the Red Cross Chapter House on Mt. Vernon Ave. Wednesday and donate a pint of blood.

Hours for the visit will be from 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Appointments can be made by calling the Red Cross office at 2-1653. Sufficient parking facilities are available and the Red Cross also provides a baby sitter service at the Chapter House for mothers with small children who would like to visit the unit and donate blood.

Four Injured In One of Two County Wrecks

Three Hospitalized After Crash on Rt. 23 Just North of Waldo

Four persons were injured in one of the two county accidents investigated during the last two days of the holiday weekend by state patrolmen of the Marion post.

Officers said three of the four injured were admitted to Marion General Hospital where their conditions were reported as "good" this morning.

Three Hospitalized

Hospitalized were:

Miss Nell C. Bailey, 24, of 319 Linden Pl., driver of a car involved in the mishap, possible concussion.

David Gibson, 23, of Fostoria, abrasions of the face, possible concussion and broken finger.

Judith Dingee, 21, of Columbus, lacerations above the eye and possible concussion.

Also injured was Miss Mary Marshall, 15, of 420 Forest Lawn Blvd., lacerations of the scalp, who was treated and released. The four were taken to the hospital in a Hughes-Hyll ambulance. All of the injured but Judith Dingee were passengers in the Bailey auto.

Patrolmen said the mishap occurred on Rt. 23 about one mile north of Waldo at 10:10 p.m. when Miss Bailey's auto was attempting to pass another and collided on the left berm with an oncoming car driven by Kenneth R. Dingee, 19, of Columbus.

Both Cars Badly Damaged

According to the report, extensive damage was done to both vehicles. Miss Bailey was cited to appear in Municipal Court here at a later date, charged with passing without assured clear distance.

John J. Hudson, 24, of New Bloomington was arrested on a charge of reckless operation after his auto went out of control on Rt. 95 Saturday at 10:50 a.m.

Patrolmen said the vehicle went off the right side of the highway in New Bloomington and struck two road signs and a telephone pole. The westbound auto was considerably damaged.

Two Injured in City

Two persons were hurt in one of five traffic accidents investigated Saturday and Sunday by Marion police.

Hurt in an accident at N. Main and Hazen streets at 12:58 p.m. Sunday were Mrs. Robert Clifton, 37, of 795 Silver St. and her daughter, Susan, 5.

Mrs. Clifton suffered injuries to her left shoulder and back and Susan suffered a back injury. They were taken to Marion General Hospital for treatment.

They were passengers in a car driven by Robert Clifton, 37, of the same address, which was struck from the rear by a car driven by R. A. Good, 18, of Prospect. Good told police his car skidded on the wet pavement.

Cars driven by W. B. Adonis, 45, of 526 N. Greenwood St. and Bennie Cofer, 32, of 896 Kenton Ave., were involved in an accident in the 400 block on Polk St. at 9:08 a.m. Sunday.

A collision at Main and Center streets at 2:54 a.m. Sunday involved cars driven by Paul E. Jenkins, 17, of 326 Hane Ave. and Edward Quinn, 22, of 281 N. Prospect St.

Each of the other two accidents caused less than $100 total damage, police estimated.

Two Drivers Arrested

Two men were arrested Saturday night by Marion police on charges of driving while intoxicated. They were: A. T. Christian, 41, of 407 N. Grand Ave., arrested on S. Main St. at 10:40 p.m. and W. F. Oller, 61, of near Delaware, arrested at 6:11 p.m. on Bellefontaine Ave.

They are to appear in Marion Municipal Court later.

Break-Ins, Thefts Probed in County

Two breaking and enterings and three thefts were reported to the sheriff's office during the weekend.

Prospect Marshal Paul Gast told deputies Saturday that a lawn mower had been stolen from the Ray Stiffler residence there and that Joseph Arnold had reported the theft of two outside mirrors from his car.

Theft of a lantern and tools from his home on County Rd. 45 near LaRue was reported Sunday morning by George Nelson. He valued the stolen items at about $37, deputies said.

Frank Reese of near Green Camp told deputies Sunday that someone broke into his cottage on County Rd. 83 along the Scioto River. Deputies said apparently nothing was taken but the building and some furniture inside were damaged.

At 7:30 a.m. today, Doyle Smith of near Cardington reported that someone had stolen a dinner bell from outside of his home Saturday night.

Kiwanis Cited For Work in Traffic Safety

The Marion Kiwanis Club today was hailed by the Ohio Department of Highway Safety as being instrumental in cutting down the number of deaths on Ohio highways during the three-day holiday period.

Gordon Jeffrey, director of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, told Verne Hart, chairman of the local club which promoted holiday safety drive, that the effort employed by clubs throughout the state definitely contributed to saving lives on highways.

The Associated Press reported 18 traffic deaths in Ohio as contrasted with 28 last year in a shorter holiday period.

The local club program, endorsed by Gov. C. William O'Neill and the highway safety department, called for distribution by club members of safe driving literature to drivers at key intersections and an all-out effort at strict enforcement by law officers.

Mr. Hart said 60 Marion club members were at work during the three-day period, distributing the handbills at Marion's three key arteries leading out of the city. Nearly 200 other clubs throughout the state participated in the effort.

Commenting on the success of the safety campaign, Mr. Hart said: I feel the many hours spent by my committee and local Kiwanians was well worth the time because it resulted in cutting down traffic fatalities.

"It is my hope," he continued, "that the state legislature will realize that spotlighting speed and other traffic violations and making more stringent penalties will result in partial correction of traffic ills."

Not only was the state record impressive, but the local one as well. Marion and Morrow counties escaped without any fatalities this weekend.

Police Chief Justin E. Cornely commended local motorists today for their performance behind the wheel during the holiday period. Other law enforcement officials also hailed drivers for their caution.

The Kiwanis program, originated here a few months ago, urged strict law enforcement, not only on Memorial Day, but at any time. The club designed the Memorial Day campaign as an initial step in putting a more strict penalty program into effect.

Five Injured In 3 Morrow Area Crashes

Three Persons Hurt In Single Collision South of Mt. Gilead

A Mansfield woman sustained a broken ankle and abrasions of the back Sunday in one of three Morrow County accidents reported today by state patrolmen of the Marion post. A total of five persons was injured in two of the mishaps.

Patrolmen said Estelle B. Link, 33, of Mansfield, was admitted to Morrow County Hospital for treatment following the 3:40 p.m. accident on Rt. 42 north of Cardington.

The mishap occurred when the car in which the injured woman was riding, driven by Jewell D. Link, 30, of Mansfield, went left of center, and collided with a southbound car driven by Lloyd J. Reindl, 32, of Dayton, patrolmen noted.

Officers said Link told them he had fallen asleep at the wheel of his car.

Car Strikes Pole

After collision impact the Link vehicle went off the east side of the highway, swerved back to the west side and struck a telephone pole, corner post and farm fence owned by A. A. Coder of Cardington, it was reported.

Both autos were damaged extensively, patrolmen said. Link was cited to appear before Mayor Ralph Porterfield of Mount Gilead at a later date, charged with driving left of center.

Three persons injured in a mishap Saturday morning on Morrow County Rd. 115 were treated by a Cardington doctor, patrolmen said.

According to the report, the accident occurred one and one-half miles southeast of Mount Gilead at 10:15 a.m. when an eastbound car driven by Betty R. Lawyer, 32, of near Mount Gilead, swerved left of center.

Officers said the Lawyer vehicle collided with a westbound car driven by Ira P. Wilson, 40, of Chesterville.

The Lawyer driver told patrolmen a wasp had flown into the car and she was attempting to brush it away when her auto went out of control. Both vehicles were damaged considerably.

Injured were: Wilson, lacerations of the chin; Louise Wilson, 32, lacerations of the left knee and bruises of the chin, a passenger; the Lawyer driver, bruised knee and elbow; Marie Lawyer, 10, lacerations of the forehead and knee, and John P. Lawyer, bruised nose and facial lacerations, both passengers in the Lawyer car.

Driver Is Charged

Charged with driving left of center, the Lawyer driver was cited to appear before Mayor Porterfield.

The intersection of Rt. 42 and Morrow County Rd. 159, two miles north of Ashley, was the scene of a two-car collision Sunday at 12:15 p.m.

Patrolmen said cars involved were driven by Mary E. Staley, 33, of Cardington, and Francis Kohn, 31, of Cleveland, both northbound.

According to the report the Kohn vehicle struck the back of the Staley auto which was stopped to make a left turn. Considerable damage was done to the Staley car and extensive to that driven by Kohn.

Officers said Kohn was arrested on a charge of failure to stop within assured clear distance and will appear before Mayor Porterfield.

County's Farmers Given Tax Refund

County Auditor Maurice C. Clements said today he has refunded $2,975 in tax money collected in 1956 and 1957 on properties on which Credit Commodity Corp. loans had been made.

The refunds were made on the basis of an Ohio Supreme Court opinion last April which held that agricultural products under the government loan are not taxable as property of the producer.

Mr. Clements said most of the refunds have been small, ranging from $3.98 to $317.88. He has predicted, however, that the refunds probably will amount to a loss of several thousand dollars in county revenue.

Applications for refunds of taxes collected in 1956 must be submitted to the auditor before Aug. 11. Refund applications for 1957 must be filed by Aug. 10, 1959, he said.

Applicants for the refunds must present a copy of the contract for the Credit Commodity Corp. loan or furnish other evidence that such a loan has been obtained, Mr. Clements said.

ing three major things of the Assembly:

1. Emergency powers to rule by decree for six months to clear up the current crisis. Parliament would take a vacation in the interim.

2. Authority to revise the constitution to give a stronger executive, based on the American system, rather than the parade of weak regimes which have been at the mercy of the Assembly.

3. Constitutional reform to reorganize the relation between France and her overseas territories.

Both constitutional reforms would be submitted directly to the people for approval, rather than to the Assembly first. De Gaulle did not spell out the constitutional changes he plans, saying this would be done in a bill to be submitted soon.

In Session All Night

The Assembly committee approved the request for six months of full power 27-17 after an all-night session during which Vice Premiers Guy Mollet and Pierre Pflimlin pleaded that the general must be given a chance to push ahead with plans to revitalize France.

The committee vote followed bitter debate in the Assembly and Communist rioting against De Gaulle in the streets of the capital.

Another committee voted to extend special power measures which De Gaulle's predecessors have had for dealing with the 3½-year-old Algerian rebellion.

Besides Socialist Mollet and Popular Republican (Catholic) Pflimlin, De Gaulle's demands were pressed by conservative Louis Jacquinot and Felix Houphouet-Boigny of the Rally of African People.

They were called to testify before the committee in a 3 a.m. summons after the body had elected a man hostile to the proposal as its chief.

Communists and some Socialists on the committee — which represented all hues of opinion — voted against De Gaulle's demands.

No Honeymoon

The bitter debate earlier in the Assembly and in the committee made plain that De Gaulle will have no honeymoon with the opposition.

Sporadic outbreaks of leftist-led violence also were seen as an omen of trouble ahead.

In Algeria, where right-wing French colonists and army officers seized power May 13 and touched off the crisis, a wary calm prevailed.

General Forms Coalition Regime

PARIS (AP)—This is the coalition Cabinet lineup voted into office under Gen. Charles de Gaulle:

De Gaulle—premier and defense minister; Pierre Guillaumat, nonpartisan, deputy defense minister.

Pierre Pflimlin, Popular Republican (MRP); Guy Mollet, Socialist; Louis Jacquinot, Independent Republican (Conservative); and Felix Houphouet-Boigny, African Democratic Rally (RDA)—vice premiers.

Michel Debre, Social Republican (Gaullist), justice; Max Lejeune, Socialist, Algeria-Sahara affairs; Maurice Couve de Murville, nonpartisan, foreign; Antoine Pinay, Independent Republican, finance; Paul Bacon, MRP, labor; Emile Pelletier, nonpartisan, interior: Jean Bertoin, Radical Socialist, education.

Police Reports

Robert McCurdy of 356 Fahey St. reported two hub caps stolen from his car parked at his residence Friday night. He valued the hub caps at $17.

—:—

Theft of two hub caps valued at $18 was reported also by Ralph Parsons of 227 Patterson St. He said his car was parked at the rear of Sam's Nite Club on N. Main St. when the hub caps were stolen Friday night.

—:—

Luther Slone of 245 Jefferson St. reported Sunday that his car was broken into while it was parked on Toledo Ave. Saturday night from 9:30 to 11:30 p.m. He said the windshield and right front door glass were broken out and a rod and reel and a camera having a total value of $30 were taken.

Second Half Real Estate Tax Statements Mailed

Some 9,000 real estate tax statements for the second half of 1957 were mailed out today by the county treasurer's office.

County Treasurer Marion E. Hinklin said tax books in his office will be open from this Thursday through July 19. He said regular office hours from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, and from 1 to 4 p.m. will remain in effect for the time being.

Youth Crusade Urged by Ike

Makes Graduation Speech in Maryland

EMMITSBURG, Md. (AP) — President Eisenhower today called on the youth of America to wage a crusade for world peace and for justice at home and abroad.

In a commencement address at Mount St. Mary's College, the President said the basic struggle in this age is between free governments based on religious faith and despotic communism.

Eisenhower told the 120 graduates and an audience of about 3,200 that the present offers a wonderful opportunity for pioneering—in such fields as racial relations, education, slum clearance and, generally, raising living standards.

And he added he was talking not only about such opportunities in this country, but in undeveloped nations of the free world.

The President, accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, came to Mount St. Mary's College in the role of neighbor. He and the First Lady motored to the campus from their farm at Gettysburg, Pa., where they spent the Memorial Day weekend.

tists along with three top-flight American physicists.

Khrushchev replied Saturday that he was agreeable to the proposed starting time. According to official informants, he also raised the question of including Polish and Czech scientists and possibly having men also from neutral countries such as India. He called for a final report in about a month—rather than two months—from the opening date of the technical sessions.

U. S. officials said the Khrushchev proposition seemed to raise no difficult barriers to getting the talks under way in middle or late June. Khrushchev did say he would like the meeting held in Moscow, but pending a further study of this point officials here thought the President probably would stick to his proposal of Geneva as a neutral meeting place.

A clue to De Gaulle's intentions may come from his handling of the American proposal to include French scientists in the test detection studies, and his attitude toward Western summit negotiations with the Soviet Union already under way in Moscow.

The White House statement Sunday night struck a friendly note throughout.

"We have been witnessing with sympathy and understanding," it said, "the difficult days through which France has been passing and we are gratified that the French crisis is now being resolved.

"Gen. de Gaulle has assumed heavy responsibilities at a critical juncture in French history. Our thoughts go out to the great French nation, wishing it well in the tasks ahead.

Oil-Rich Kingdom in Social Ferment

Unrest Grips Saudi Arabia

William L. Ryan, AP foreign news analyst, is making one of his periodic visits to the Middle East. This time he has been one of the few American reporters in recent years to get into Saudi Arabia.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foign News Anayst

JIDDAH, Saudi Arabia (AP) — A burgeoning social revolution has plunged Saudi Arabia into a deep political and financial crisis. It has an important bearing on the future of Middle East politics.

The pattern of the monarchy is already changing.

But the emerging leaders, once captivated by notions of pan-Arab nationalism, are casting speculative glances northward. The violent events in Lebanon could worsen their money troubles at any moment.

THE LAVISH waste of money by this country's innumerable royal princes has finally caught up with the rulers of the backward desert kingdom.

And now that the rulers are struggling — with some promise of success—to stave off financial chaos, events in Lebanon are threatening the outlet of the oil pipeline at Sidon. If that should be shut off, there would be sharp repercussions here.

Crown Prince Faisal, astute brother of King Saud, suddenly has taken a strong grip on the reins. For all practical purposes he seems to be governing Saudi Arabia.

ONCE CONSIDERED pro-Nasser and bitterly anti-American, Faisal has made a noticeable shift in his attitude toward Arab politics. Deeply involved in straightening out the financial mess here, he has climbed on the political fence.

The Saudi situation has been so critical, there has been a total ban on the entry of foreign journalists — even Arab correspondents.

I had a valid visa issued before the ban and entered with no trouble.

The country obviously is going to need help, and in this immense, cruel land of blazing sand and baffling Bedouins may lie America's last big chance in the Middle East.

EITHER SAUDI ARABIA becomes a bastion of U. S. friendship in this dangerously disturbed area, or it will be caught up in violent tides of an unreasoning, self-destroying anti-Westernism fed by fear, frustration and resentment.

Intelligent American initiative still can wean this infant revolution from its appetite for Nasser's brand of violent pan-Arabism. Saudi Arabia's restless "Young Turks" are ready to listen.

County To Take Cut of $55 From Tax Distribution

Marion County is one of 34 in Ohio which will begin taking a slight cut in monthly sales tax distributions, the state auditor's office reported today.

The cut amounts to about $55 a month here and as much as $8,000 a month in Cuyahoga County. Reason for the decrease, according to the state auditor's office, is a change in municipal tax duplicates. This county had been receiving $10,330 a month and now will get $10,275.

Ohio law provides that 75 per cent of the sales tax money shall be distributed in the ratio which the total tax duplicate of a county's municipal corporations bears to the municipal tax duplicate for the entire state. The other 25 per cent is distributed on the basis of a county's 1950 population.

The state auditor's office reported that 33 counties will receive increases in monthly allocations and 21 small counties will continue to receive the minimum of $40,000 a year.

Billy Graham Rallies Draw Over 500,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham's crusade, which began here April 27, has exceeded the half-million mark in attendance.

Counting Sunday's crowd of 12,000 in the 16,500-seat Cow Palace, 505,600 had attended the services.

Graham told his audience Sunday that "God is merciful and God loves you, but someday he will sit in judgment over you."

Judgment, he said, is as certain as death, and the Bible speaks of not just one judgment but a series of them.

"You can't buy your way into heaven," he warned. "You enter through your faith in Christ, which is a gift of God."

At the end of his sermon 434 persons went forward in "decisions for Christ," bringing the total to 17,935.

Bragan's Lecture Wasted, Tribe Belted by A's 6-2

Manager Reads Riot Act To Slumping Indian Team

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Manager Bobby Bragan fired some rough words at his Indians Sunday, but it had little immediate effect as Cleveland dropped its third straight game to the Kansas City Athletics 6-2.

In a lengthy clubhouse lecture preceding the game, Bragan charged the team with complacency and indifference. It was his understanding, he added, that situation has existed in Cleveland for the last eight years.

Errors Pave Way

In the very first inning an error by Gary Geiger at third base and a wild throw by second baseman Billy Moran paved the way for five unearned Kansas City runs.

Righthander Cal McLish was the victim of his mates' miscues. Saturday night, the Tribe committed four errors and a costly passed ball, enabling the A's to win 5-4. The losses dropped Cleveland to fourth place.

In reading the riot act to the Tribe, the rookie American League manager cited a "lack of concentration on winning, a lack of team effort and an accumulation of little things that leads to a general attitude of complacency and indifference." He added:

"This situation has existed in Cleveland for eight years. At least, that's what (coaches) Red Kress and Mel Harder tell me and they ought to know."

Meanwhile, if the Indians don't see the Athletics until July 5—the next scheduled meeting—it will be soon enough for them.

The A's have won seven of the nine contests played between the two clubs.

Open at Boston

The Tribe took a plane ride today—their longest hop of the season—to Boston, where they meet Red Sox in the opener of a three-game series Tuesday night.

Lefthander Dick Tomanek, who topped Boston 2-1 in 12 innings less than two weeks ago, is to start for Cleveland.

Getting back to Sunday's game in which Cleveland only managed six hits off Ray Herbert, there was one bright spot.

Rookie righthander Gary Bell made his major league debut in a relief role and struck out six in three innings. The 21-year-old, who was just recalled from San Diego, was touched for a run in the third inning on a solid double by Vic Power and a bloop two-bagger by Harry Chiti.

Bob Kelly and Bob Lemon pitched an inning each and Don Mossi twirled two frames, holding the A's scoreless.

But all the damage was done in the initial inning.

First Start at Third

Geiger, who had played third only once before in his brief career, booted a grounder hit by Mike Baxes, leadoff batter for Kansas City. Baxes stole second and Bob Cerv was given an intentional walk with two out. McLish then walked Bill Tuttle and Vic Power lined a single to center to score two runs.

When Moran made a wild relay to the plate, a third run scored. Chiti followed with a double and came home on a single by Joe Demaestri.

One of Cleveland's runs in the seventh was unearned when Bob Martyn dropped Roger Maris' sacrifice fly following a walk to Rocky Colavito and Russ Nixon's single. Mickey Vernon drove in the second run with a single.

Reds Nail 2-1 Victory, Play To 11-11 Tie

CINCINNATI (AP)—If baseball players got paid time-and-a-half for overtime and traveling pay the Cincinnati Redlegs would be in for plenty of it.

They didn't stop playing in a still uncompleted doubleheader in Philadelphia Sunday until 7 p.m. (EDT). Then came the trip here for the playoff this afternoon of a postponed game against Pittsburgh. Next will come a dash to Los Angeles for a game with the Dodgers out there Tuesday night.

It all adds up to four games in slightly more than 48-hours—two of them in Philadelphia, one in Cincinnati and one in Los Angeles.

The cash customer at Philadelphia Sunday got just about any kind of baseball, or what is referred as baseball, that they'd want.

The Redlegs took the opener, 2-1, in a tight pitching duel between Bob Purkey and Jack Sanford. Then came the wild nightcap. The score was tied at 11-11 in the top of the ninth when the Pennsylvania curfew law put an end to action.

As a result, it will be mid-August before the final result of that one is known. The game will be resumed at the point at which it was suspended but the Redlegs don't go back to Philadelphia until Aug. 11.

The suspended game was wild and wooly. The Redlegs blew leads of 5-1, 10-3 and 11-10. There were 31 hits, 4 errors, 11 pitchers saw action and there was one wild pitch.

Purkey, winning his sixth game as against one defeat, allowed the Phils eight hits in the opener, the same number Cincinnati got off Sanford. The only r Purkey gave up was a homer by Solly Hemus in the third, his first circuit blow in two years.

Meanwhile, the Redlegs had picked up a run in the second on a walk to Roy McMillan, a sacrifice and Johnny Temple's single. They got their other run in the

Vote Slated Tuesday

Dodgers Awaiting Results of Election

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The hottest issue here in Tuesday's California primary election is proposition B. That's B as in baseball.

The issue is:

Shall the Dodger get 300 weed-grown acres of city-owned land in Chavez Ravine in which to build a baseball stadium?

Proponents say the site, near the confluence of the metropolis' freeways and about a mile from the city hall, is ideal.

Feelings are high on both sides.

Crowd Turns Out

A noisy crowd of several thousand welcomed the Dodgers home from a 2½-week road trip Sunday night as though the National League cellar dwellers were world champions.

Two bands blared. Vendors sold Dodger pennants. Players were introduced as they stepped from the plane. Traffic jammed airport street for a half hour.

Television cameras covered the arrival as part of a four-hour "Dodgerthon" on station KTTV in behalf of proposition B.

Movie, sports, night club and TV personalities appeared before studio cameras and urged a yes vote. Comedian Joe E. Brown was master of ceremonies.

Star of the show was cigar-puffing Walter O'Malley, Dodger president. Answering questions, he said:

Like New Location

The National League could require the Dodgers to move from Los Angeles if proposition B fails, "but we like it here too much."

The City Council voted 10-4 for the Chavez Ravine contract last fall. But a group led by Councilman John Holland got enough signatures on petitions to force the referendum.

Rocky Nelson Continues Bid For IL Titles

By The Associated Press

Rocky Nelson, who never has been able to stick in the major leagues, is again tearing the International League apart.

In the last four days, the veteran Toronto first baseman—three times the IL's most valuable player—has connected with four home runs and driven in 12 runs to pull away as the league leader in both departments.

Sunday Nelson hit his 19th and 20th home runs among his six hits and drove in seven runs to run his total RBI to 50 as the Leafs blasted five Buffalo pitchers for 23 hits and 6-5 and 11-6 victories.

In other games, Montreal beat the Rochester Red Wings 7-4 in a single game, the Miami Marlins swept a double header from the Havana Sugar Kings 6-1 and 4-2 and the Columbus Jets split with Richmond, winning the second 4-1 after dropping the opener 5-2.

Lefthander Joe Gibbon of the Jets pitched a brilliant one hitter in the second game. Bobby Del Greco's double in the fifth inning of the seven inning affair was the only safety.

In the opener the Virginians scored four runs in the second inning and then coasted the rest of the way. Gair Allie hit a home run in each game for Columbus.

Yesterday's STARS

Batting—Andy Carey, Yankees, boosted his average 51 points to .256 with five straight hits including two homers, double and two singles. He drove in four runs and scored three in 10-4 victory over Boston.

Pitching—Stan Williams, Dodgers, shutout Chicago with two singles in first major league start for 1-0 victory.

Tony Ruvo, Colby junior from Rutherford, N.J., hurled the second no-hit, no-run game in the school's history when he beat Williams this spring.

Sanders Nails First Place in Western Play

DETROIT (AP)—Youthful Doug Sanders had enough money today to pay doctor bills for the injuries that kept him out of tournament golf for the better part of a year.

The 24-year-old former collegiate swinger from the University of Florida collected $5,000 first-place money Sunday in the 55th Western Open Tournament.

Back on the tour less than a month after his second injury within the year, Sanders sloshed through a driving rain for a final round 68 and made his 4-under-par performance stand up for a one-stroke victory. He was 13 strokes under par for the 72 holes.

Dow Finsterwald finished second for the 16th time in 2½ years and collected $2,500.

Sanders fired rounds of 69-68—70 before his fourth straight subpar showing over the suburban Red Run Golf Club layout (36-36—72)

American Golfers Seek British Title

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Gene Andrews of Pacific Palisades, Calif., one-time U.S. National Public Links champion, opened his third bid for the British Amateur Golf championship today by defeating Dr. J. L. Hastings of Scotland 8 and 7 in the first round.

Andrews has reached the fifth round in each of his two previous appearances in the British Amateur.

Today, the Californian got off to a good lead on the 6,996-yard Old Course of St. Andrews as Hastings missed several short putts. Andrews was three up after the first five holes and had an easy time.

Another American veteran, Jimmy McHale of Philadelphia, won his first round match from Bill Richmond of Scotland, 4 and 2.

Take A Tip From The World's Busiest Toll Road...

on how to save on Taxes with Heavy Duty ASPHALT

The world's most heavily traveled toll road, the New Jersey Turnpike, which carries over 35,000,000 cars, busses, and trucks a year saved over $46,000 a mile by using heavy duty Asphalt paving.

Asphalt is built from the ground up, as the world's busiest toll road proves. Its deep-layered strength and resilience stands up to traffic loads and the test of time.

Asphalt offers smoother, safer, more comfortable riding and low maintenance cost that insure lasting economy.

There's a reason 4/5 of America's Roads are ASPHALT!
• More driving miles per tax dollar
• Lower maintenance cost
• Smoother riding

Giants Regain Lead as Bucs Defeat Braves

By The Associated Press

Maybe Walter O'Malley should let Walter Alston do his Chavez Ravine electioneering. Whatever Alston told the Dodgers behind closed doors the other day must have been a pep talk in the Knute Rockne tradition.

The Dodgers reacted Saturday, after a double defeat Friday, and bombed the Chicago Cubs. Then came Sunday and a two-hit 1-0 shutout by Stan Williams, a 21-year-old rookie.

Although the Dodgers still are 10 games back, Williams had pitched only three innings until Alston gave him the call Sunday. The 6-4 right-hander acted like he really belonged. Working in 48-degree weather and a stiff 20 m.p.h. wind, Williams allowed only two singles—one by Al Dark in the first and one by loser Dick Drott in the third.

The San Francisco Giants climbed back into first place by snapping the St. Louis Card's four game winning streak, 7-2. After dropping three straight, the Giants backed up Johnny Antonelli with an 11-hit attack.

Bob Friend, Pittsburgh and the rain combined to drop Milwaukee into second place. Friend held the Braves to five hits while the Pirates built up a 5-1 edge. Rain stopped the game three times and finally forced the umpires to call it off after seven innings. It was Friend's eighth victory.

Cincinnati's Bob Purkey won his sixth, 2-1 over Philadelphia in the first game. The two clubs struggled to an 11-11 tie in the second game, finally stipped by the Sunday curfew in the ninth. It goes into the records as a suspended game to be completed at a later date.

144 Berths Open

Qualifying Play Begins For Places in U.S. Open

By The Associated Press

The annual scramble — and a mad one it is — for the 144 qualifying spots in the U. S. Open golf championship takes place at 28 courses scattered across the country today.

When all the returns of the 36-hole qualifiers are tabulated, about one out of 15 hopefuls will have made the big event which is scheduled for Tulsa, Okla., June 12-14.

Record Field in Action

A record entry of 2,150 golfers are in the running. The championship is among 162 players, but 17 are exempt because of their past records and one already has qualified. So that leaves just 144 spots up for grabs.

Ted Makalema of Honolulu fired a 72-75—147 last Monday in winning the Hawaiian section against 14 opponents.

The days of all the former champions sitting back and qualifying automatically are gone, and as of last year, only the last five victors get in without going through the preliminary round.

That group includes Dick Mayer, the defending champion; Cary Middlecoff, Jack Fleck, Ed Furgol and Ben Hogan.

Also Get Free Ride

The previous year's 10 low scorers (excluding the exempt ex-champs) also get a free ticket into the tournament. That list includes Julius Boros, Jimmy Demaret, Walter Burkemo, Ken Venturi, Fred Hawkins, Sam Snead, Roberto De Vicenzo, Chick Harbert, Billy Maxwell and Billy Joe Patton.

Lionel Hebert, the PGA champion, and Hillman Robbins, the U.S. amateur titleholder, also are exempt.

Pleasant Nails 6-2 Edge Over Waldo

Pleasant clipped Waldo 6-2 Thursday night, as the Marion County summer baseball season rolled into gear.

The game was a replay of a Tuesday night tilt. That fracas was called on account of darkness with the count knotted at 4-4.

The Pandas, with Jeff Peacock pitching and Harold Biggerstaff catching, scored six runs on eight hits and were charged with a brace of errors. Klingel and Temple furnished the Waldo battery.

The losers tallied twice on three hits. They were guilty of a trio of bobbles.

Peacock struck out 19 Waldo stickmen in the seven - inning game. Leading the hitters were Bob Bernow, with a single and double in three times at the plate, and Gene Massie, who stroked two singles in four times up.

Klingel fanned 11 Pleasant batsmen and walked three for Waldo.

Weekend Fights

Stuttgart, Germany — Stefan Redl, 145¾, Passaic, N. J., outpointed Gerd Mueller, 143½, Germany, 10.

Hollywood — Jimmy Hornsby, 138, Los Angeles, outpointed Rudy Jordan, 136½, Los Angeles, 10.

Havana—Angel Robinson Garcia, 134½, Havana, stopped Julio Escobedo, 133¾, 3.

79 Northern Ohio Golfers Seek Spots

CLEVELAND (AP)—A field of 79 will compete in the northern Ohio qualifier at the Country Club here today for four places in the National Open Golf Tournament to be held at Tulsa, Okla., June 12-14.

The Country Club is seeking the National Open itself in 1960.

The 36-hole qualifying record of 136 set here last year by Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill., is not expected to be in danger today.

Most prominent among today's entries is Bob Toski, a touring pro who in 1954 was the nation's leading money winner. He made a practice round at the Country Club course Sunday accompanied by Mark McCormack, former Chicago amateur and now a Country Club member.

Radnor Squad Breaks Even in Pair of Games

RADNOR — Radnor's baseball team broke even in a pair of league encounters over the weekend.

The Delaware County power romped to a 16-0 victory over Plain City here Sunday in a Columbus Sunday AM League battle after dropping a 5-4 verdict Saturday night to Dan Rohyans of Columbus in a Mark Stephens League game.

George Steele was the winning pitcher in yesterday's rout of Plain City. The win was the second without defeat for Radnor and kept it in a tie for first place with London. Steele blanked the losers on three hits and was relieved by Clark in the eighth inning.

Radnor pushed over two runs in the first, six in the second and four in the third. The winners added one in the fourth and three in the eighth.

Kenny Schultz banged out three hits to lead the winning attack while Don Shoemaker, Bill Stuart, Don Maxwell and Don Holley each had two. Only one Plain City runner reached third base and that came with two out in the ninth inning.

In the Saturday night game, Radnor dropped behind 4-0 in the first three innings but then came back with one run in the fifth and tied the score with three in the seventh. The Rohyans team pushed over the winning marker in the top of the ninth frame.

Joe Rotonda was on the mound for the Columbus team and gave up seven hits. Dave Masters started for Radnor but was forced from action by a pulled muscle in the side in the second. Taylor took over the mound duties following the injury. Don Vinton belted a two-run homer for the winners in the first inning. Holly led Radnor with two hits.

The Radnor nine will meet Beltone of Columbus Saturday at 8 p.m. in a Mark Stephens League game and then play the same team Sunday at Columbus in the Columbus League.

third when George Crowe's blow got by Rip Repulski for a double and was followed by a run-scoring single by Don Hoak.

Neither starting pitcher got through the first inning of the second game. Cincinnati blasted Roman Semproch for five runs in the opening frame with Ed Bailey's bases-filled double driving in two of the tallies and Don Hoak following across the plate on a bobbled throw in from the outfield.

Lawrence Is Chased

But Brooks Lawrence couldn't stand prosperity and was knocked out in the Phils' half as he was clubbed for three hits and a run.

Things went along fairly peacefully from then until the fifth Dodgers out there Tuesday night, when the Phils cut the deficit to 5-3.

Back came the Rhinelanders with five more in the sixth with Temple hitting an inside the park home run with the bases full.

The Phils, however, put together five hits for four runs off reliefer Tom Acker and Johnny Klippstein in their half of the sixth and tied it up in the seventh off Hal Jeffcoat and Turk Lown.

Singles by Gus Bell and George Crowe and Temple's infield grounder put the Redlegs back out in front in the eighth but Temple's error, a sacrifice and Willie Jones' fourth hit tied it up again.

That's the way it stood when the game was halted in the top of the ninth with Cincinnati having a man on first, one out and Don Hoak at bat.

Joe Nuxhall, who hasn't pitched a complete game yet this season, was to draw the starting assignment here today against either Don Gross or R. G. Smith of the Pirates.

Vote To Work

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Locals 801 (Frigidaire) and 755 (Delco) of the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) have voted to work without a contract for the time being. Their contracts with General Motors expired at midnight Thursday. The vote was taken Sunday.

Cliff Chambers, former Pittsburgh Pirate southpaw, is recreation director of the Strategic Air Command base at Mountain Home, Ida.

Down the Fairway

The Memorial Day weekend signaled the opening of the summer golf season at both local courses and golfers took advantage of the opening week.

Both links reported heavy play Friday and Saturday but rain and threatening weather cut action Sunday.

A men's best ball tournament highlighted Memorial Day play at Marion County Club. Two teams, composed of Lou Cummins and Robert Bagley and Jack Weis and Sherm Haldeman, tied for top honors with 58's. Thayer Martin and Don Yoder shot a 59. Five teams tied for fourth place with scores of 61; Those included Paul Schwemley, and J. B. Bray Sr., George Howser and Harry Lazear, Robert Cripps and Leo Groll, Jack Lord and Cass Sisler and Harry Hammond and Don Preuninger.

In an 18-hole outting tournament, four players tied for first with 33. They were Jacque Jones, Joe Whalen, Warren Rowley and Wayne Jenkins.

Country club golfers also took part in a match against par event Saturday. Winners include Carl Knirk, Paul Hunt, Lou Cummins, Jacque Jones, Tom Moretti, Carl Sheehe, Kline Welch and Robert Mason.

Local golfers this week will have a chance to shoot in the National Golf Day tourney, matching shots with Lionel Herbert, National PGA champion, and Dick Mayer, winner of last year's U.S. Open. Those two will shoot their rounds Saturday at Southern Hill Country Club at Tulsa, Okla., site of this year's Open.

Forty-four golfers took part in a six-hole handicap tournament at the Mar-O-Del Memorial Day. The field included two women golfers.

Dutch Russell took low gross honors with a 73 while low net was shared by Lowell Williams and Homer Huffman with 60's. Ed Cheney, John Russell and Cox-ie Weiss each had 62 nets.

In Ladies Day golf Thursday at the Marion Country Club, Mrs. John Tjaden and Mrs. May Frazier posted low gross scores. Mrs. Jasper Burt had the low net, while Mrs. John Waddell had low putt.

Stroking par on the No. 3 hole were Mrs. George Howser, Mrs. May Frazier, Mrs. W. A. Dennis, Mrs. Merle Hamilton, Mrs. Ted Hufert, Mrs. John Lord, Mrs. Robert Bagley, Mrs. W. M. Kelsey, Mrs. Paul Fry, Mrs. J. R. Patterson, Mrs. Lou Cummins and Mrs. Wayne Kuhn.

Family Rescued

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Derwin Mason of Akron and their four children were rescued by a Coast Guard cutter from Marblehead Sunday after a hole was ripped in their 21-foot outboard when it hit a submerged rock near Middle Bass Island. No one was hurt. The children ranged in age from 6 to 15.

Yanks' Turley Registers 8th, Clips Red Sox

By The Associated Press

Casey Stengel can pick his starting pitcher for the July 8 All-Star game at Baltimore without any delay. Bob Turley of his New York Yankees simply is burning up the American League.

Turley boosted his season won-lost record to 8-1 Sunday by throwing a five-hitter at the Boston Red Sox for a 10-4 romp. Using his breaking stuff more than his pet fast ball, Turley struck out 10 and took over the league lead with 53 victims.

It was Turley's eighth complete game in nine starts. Three of the runs scored by Boston came when Jackie Jensen's wind blown pop fly to short left with the bases loaded fell just inside the foul line.

Andy Carey came through with five straight hits. Two homers, a double and two singles helped him add 51 points to his average, which now measures .256.

Kansas City remained 6½ games behind the Yanks by whipping Cleveland 6-2, after scoring five unearned runs on Cal McLish in the first inning. Ray Herbert blanked the Indians with three hits in the first six innings and finished with a six-hitter. All this after Bob Bragan had blasted his Indians as "complacent and indifferent" in a pre-game lecture.

Billy Loes wound up with a $100 fine and an indefinite suspension from Baltimore Manager Paul Richards after he blew up and charged an umpire while Washington was beating the Orioles 5-2.

After Loes chased Ken Aspromonte over homeplate, while trying to tag him on a rundown play in the fifth, the temperamental pitcher slammed the ball to the ground and went after Umpire Larry Napp. Another run scored and a runner took third as the ball rolled away.

The Chicago-Detroit game was postponed because of rain after four innings with Detroit leading 1-0 on Al Kaline's home run.

Motorist Arrested In Dublin Mishap

DELAWARE — A plain City man was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and held in Plain City jail pending hearing before Mayor Kline Lumas after his auto was involved in a collision on Rt. 33 Sunday at 2:05 p.m.

The mishap was one of two area non-injury accidents reported today as activity in Memorial Day weekend traffic.

Investigating patrolmen of the Delaware post said the mishap occurred one and one-half miles north of Dublin when an auto driven by Raymond L. Brown, 43, of Plain City, attempted a left turn in the path of an oncoming car.

Officers said the Brown vehicle was struck in the right rear end while negotiating the turn by the oncoming car driven by Alice Augenstein, 41, of Columbus. Both cars wre damaged badly.

Entrance to the Delaware Dam was the scene of a mishap Saturday at 11:30 a.m. on Rt. 23, north of here, when two cars collided, patrolmen said.

Autos involved were driven by Edwin E. Spencer, 40, of Millersport, and Ober H. Simon, 37, of Bowling Green. Officers said the Spencer auto attempted a left turn from the right lane of dual traffic and was struck by the Simon car, traveling south in the inside lane.

Both cars were damaged considerably.

Tax Receipts Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state received $279,936 in taxes on horse race betting during Beulah Park's 19-day meet which closed May 24. This is $15,128 more than last year, State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy said.

Depreciation Costs Fail To Cover Replacements

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—Back in 1936 the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co. purchased a huge heavy-duty engine lathe for $6,600. In 20 years it was depreciated on the books in the amount of $6,300 and this amount set aside for replacement.

It was sold for $3,700, making $10,000 available for replacement. The new lathe cost $36,000 and $26,000 had to be taken from profits after taxes. Taxes amounted to 54 per cent of earned profit and, therefore, $57,000 had to be earned in profits. The company figures it required $807,000 in new business to make enough to buy the new lathe.

Millions of Dollars Involved

Welfare Funds Looted While Law Is Studied

By VICTOR RIESEL

Hitting the road is like leaving your artillery post to see what is happening on the rest of the big front—and this front of mine is ablaze literally. Arsonists in Chicago have been terrorizing McClellan committee witnesses who have been calling for FBI protection. There are reports of explosions in Detroit.

VICTOR RIESEL

In Cincinnati, a union official with a murder conviction record was uncovered. In Harrisburg a Citizens Committee has organized itself to analyze and fight crime in that state.

Nowhere is there any doubt that the mobs are doing business as usual and the usual business is to infiltrate the labor movement. There is no doubt that one of the targets, which raises a glow in their eyes as bright as some of the fires they light, is to put their hands on any part of the 31 billion dollars in pension and welfare funds now covering some 85 million people.

The vast part of this vast insurance business is legitimate and carefully watched. Yet some of it operates on the shady side of the street — as, for example, one outfit now being observed carefully in Detroit by the feds.

MILLIONS of dollars are involved here. This particular looting is "legal," but looting nonetheless. It's still legal, because only in six states are there protective laws governing such pension and welfare funds. These states are New York, California, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Washington, and Connecticut.

There is no federal regulation, not even on embezzlement of such funds, because a House of Representatives subcommittee, headed by my own congressman, Ludwig Teller, plans to take weeks studying the bill, S 2888 recently passed by the Senate.

So, on my return to New York, I sought out Martin E. Segal, head of the company of the same name, the largest of its kind in the land.

Segal's firm advises over 700 pension and welfare funds — in the milk, building and construction, radio and TV, publishing, machine tool and trucking fields. Hundreds of millions of dollars are scrupulously handled.

I asked Mr. Segal just how large this field is. He reports that employers now pay more than nine billion dollars annually into such funds. This is a two-billion-dollar increase over 1954. There will be sharper increases as the years go by. These funds accumulate mostly in the pension field, Mr. Segal said.

HE REPORTS that there are 30 billion dollars in pension pools and only one billion in the welfare funds which are spent more rapidly. Talk about vastness, there now are group life insurance policies totalling 117 billion dollars. Placement of even the smallest fraction of such insurance could bring hundreds of thousands of dollars in commissions.

To show you how swiftly the pension funds roll up, Mr. Segal reveals that there were 7,425 such pools of cash in 1945. They increased to 23,000 in '56, the last available count. There are many more today.

Yet the country still waits for congressional action, though virtually all sides, including the White House, the Democratic high command and labor itself agree. As my Broadway friends would say: "What's to study?"

THIS BILL, if it becomes law, would give the working people—the beneficiaries of these plans—an accounting of the money they spend and which is spent in their behalf for future security benefits and would permit the workers themselves to appraise the merits of the plans.

The bill demands the names and addresses of those having over-all responsibility for the funds.

It would make public the number of persons covered; the kind of benefits provided; information on how the benefits are financed; the amount of benefits paid; detailed statements of assets and liabilities; detailed statements on income and especially expenses: salaries, fees and commissions drawn out of the pools of cash—and to whom they're paid and for what purpose; actuarial date and loans, if any, to employers or to any other persons or companies with an interest in the welfare or pension fund. There is much more.

But it all adds up to the pleasant fact that once this becomes law, it becomes a federal crime to steal or even "legally loot" these insurances of a better life.

Does this need studying?

All students in the city or county within the grade limitations are entitled to enter competition, Miss Berg noted. Registrations for the program now are being taken in the Children's Department.

For adults, 22 new books take the spotlight on display near the main library entrance this week. They vary from western fiction to volumes concerning health, religion and "You and Your Job." All may be signed out beginning Saturday.

James Longstreet Reindicted In Study of Gettysburg Battle

By BOB PRICE
Associated Press Book Critic

THE DEATH OF A NATION. By Clifford Dowdey. Knopf. $5.

As the Civil War centennial draws ever nearer, we can anticipate that the war's campaigns and battles will undergo searching reexamination. By common consent, it seems, Gettysburg is getting the initial scrutiny. A half dozen books dealing with that critical battle have been issued in the last two years. Now comes "Death of a Nation" to set a high standard for centennial scholarship.

Dowdey's book is a study of Robert E. Lee and the Confederate army at Gettysburg. The title, in itself, is indicative of the importance of the battle in the author's view. There, he feels, was the Confederacy's last opportunity, not for military victory but for military stalemate that would have won independence for the South.

The reasons for Confederate failure at Gettysburg were complex. They began in Richmond with Jefferson Davis' policy of defense by dispersed forces, as opposed to the concentration which Lee desired. Jeb Stuart's absence on a raid which Dowdey says he undertook to win vindication for the brawl at Brandy Station added another handicap. The reorganization of command, necessitated by the death of Stonewall Jackson, proved costly in terms of intercorps liaison and coordination.

The battle itself was a tragedy of Southern errors. From Dick Ewell's costly indecision in the twilight of the first day, nothing went right. Lee himself was not without fault: He fought the battle as he had fought in the days when Jackson was his assault arm — and Jackson was dead.

The importance of Dowdey's book, however, lies in his study of James Longstreet, the "old war horse" of Confederate corps commanders. Longstreet's behavior at Gettysburg long has been a topic of controversy. In recent years, there has been a tendency to make out that Longstreet did not behave as badly as had been painted. Dowdey will have none of that.

Dowdey has gone back to the original records and based his appraisal on confirmed accounts of what was said and done on the battlefield. The process discounts much of what Longstreet wrote in later years. Dowdey finds that Longstreet was in a sullen and stubborn mood that made him incapable of command; that, willfully or not, he shirked his duties and responsibilities. Why? He was irked because Lee did not rely on him as Lee had relied on Jackson; because Lee had shrugged off his strategic concept of the campaign; because, as he saw it, Lee was blind to the Longstreet genius.

This probably will revive the Longstreet debate in all its fever

Ruling Issued On Shooting of Pair at Logan

LOGAN, Ohio (AP)—Suicide and murder have been ruled in the deaths of a Logan furniture factory worker and his estranged wife.

The slaying victim, Mrs. Wanda Brokaw, 39, was shot by her husband, Walter, as she crossed an alley in downtown Logan Saturday. The husband, about 50, apparently waited for her to return to her supermarket clerk's job from lunch, police said. He fired from a car.

Roadblocks were set up around the area, but Brokaw's car was found abandoned southwest of Logan. His body was found on a river bank near the furniture factory where he had worked for two years.

Brokaw killed himself with a shotgun, Dr. Owen Yaw, Hocking County coroner, ruled. The pistol police say he used to kill his wife was later found nearby.

Mrs. Brokaw, mother of four children in Mount Vernon by an earlier marriage, had filed for divorce.
